Total School Project Gets Some Definition

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Andover's school projects, faced by such obstacles as tax cap legislation, whether to build or renovate, what to do with an old building, would appear to have a little more definition as of Wednesday.

While such things as school committee decisions Wednesday night, building committee considerations Thursday night and Gov. King's tax cap proposal to be announced Friday, still have a bearing on project direction. Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark has provided some tentative definition of the total project.

Considerations include going forward with a new East Junior High, delaying any further planning on the addition and auditorium at the high and West Junior high schools, studying reuse of the old East Junior high and review the educational specifications for the new East facility.

New East Building Advocated

Resolving the East Junior High school problems will be the principal concern of the annual town meeting when it convenes in April.

The voters will be presented advisory questions to be acted upon with regard to the total school project, but the modernization of the secondary facilities for the East section of town will carry the strongest recommendation.

While construction of a new building will

To Delay Auditorium, Additions

There will be a delay in the total school project as proposed to voters a year ago.

That portion of the program dealing with construction of an auditorium, renovation and additions to West Junior high and the high school, will be delayed, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

The manager said that in view of the proposed tax cap legislation which would limit the town's ability to finance projected, it has become necessary to go

Reuse Of East Should Be Studied

If voters approve building a new East Junior High school, what is to become of the old structure?

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark addressed the question this week by proposing creation of a study committee and funding it with $25,000 to examine alternatives.

While selectmen were concerned that the answers should be provided at the April town meeting, Clark feels that the also be recommended, voters may also have the chance to examine the possibility of renovation.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said he would be meeting with the school building committee tonight and would review the article to be presented to town meeting. Clark said he anticipated that the committee would "be asking for construction of a new facility on the east side of town. I will also recommend that the question be placed before town meeting in April and recommend that further planning on the phase of the project dealing with the west side of town be delayed.

Only action on the East Junior high facility will be recommended at town meeting.

Governor King is expected to announce his plans for tax cap legislation on Friday. To be filed for legislative consideration, the governor's plan calls for all new revenues gained from economic or indecision can be made later.

If approval is given in April to continue the planning of a new secondary facility to replace East, then the old structure would be retained for school use until the new structure is completed.

This would allow the town time to look at alternatives.

Clark said he would support the use of the building as a combined town-school office facility, "but that is the least of our before town meeting regarding renovation of the existing building."

The town manager indicated that the question would have to be asked based on the town meeting action of December which authorized planning of a new building rather than renovation. Voters at the time were told they would be presented options.

dustrial development, to be applied to reducing the local property tax rates.

This would prohibit applications of funds from new industrial construction in Andover this past year, to be applied to anything other than tax rate reduction.

Municipal budgets are also expected to be frozen at the current fiscal year levels, according to advance information on the governor's plan, further impeding any priorities."

The advantages of combining the town-school offices in the old junior high building, would be a good reuse of the building. "But it would take considerable funding to renovate the building even for office use and with the tax cap legislation, we can't afford it," Clark said, "If we can't afford to go forward with planning

Recommends Ed. Specs Be Refined

Educational specifications for a new East Junior High school will be reviewed.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said Wednesday that he and Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert have seen "as necessary that we sit down and go over the educational specifications and provide for their refinement."

He said that he suspected that the educational specifications were not clearly understood, or that there was not a common understanding between the school committee and school building committee on what is desired.

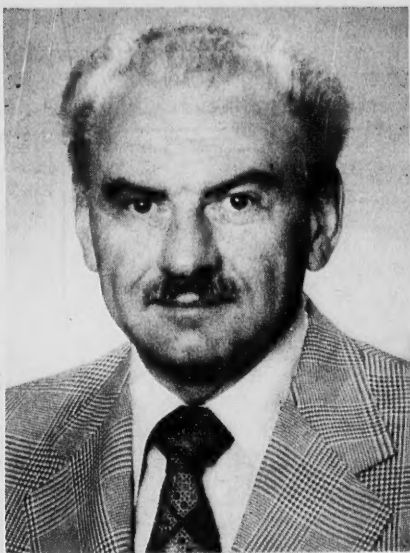

Clark said it was the responsibility of the school committee to provide the educational specifications. The building committee however, is chosen not for their expertise in the educational field, but rather representing knowledge in construction, and representative of the in-

Employees Honored By IEEE

Two Andover residents, Carl F. Kurth and Dr. Ming L. Liou, have been elected "Fellows" of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE).

The Fellow designation is given by the IEEE Board of Directors to honor individuals with "outstanding and extraordinary qualifications and experience in the fields of electrical engineering, electronics, radio, allied branches of engineering or the related arts and sciences." It is given each year to no more than one-tenth of one percent of the IEEE membership and this year the Andover residents were among 126 new Fellows from ten countries.

Simultaneously, Kurth was elected president of the Circuits and Systems Society, a scientific organization within IEEE representing engineers and scientists working in the fields of electronics, circuits, and systems theory and its applications. The society has existed for several decades and many of its members contributed at an international level to the development of the traditional and modern theories underlying the design of many of the circuits used in electronic communication equipment.

Both Kurth and Dr. Liou have been working in this field for more than ten years at Bell Laboratories in North Andover where a large section of the modern telephone equipment for the Bell System is being developed and ultimately manufactured by Western Electric.

Singing Messages Offered

As a means to raise funds for a trip to the Liberty Bell Music Festival and Competition in Philadelphia in early May, members of the Andover High School Choirs are offering "singing telegrams" for any occasion — Valentine's Day, birthdays, anniversaries or other celebrations.

Call the Andover High School Music Department, 470-1700, to make arrangements for two to four singers to send your message either over the telephone for $2.50 or in person for $5.00.

The Andover High School Choirs will be part of a group of over 500 students from all over the country participating in the competition in Philadelphia. In addition to the singing telegrams, the students are also available for "slave days" at $2 per hour and plans are underway for their annual "Cabaret" to be held the first weekend in March.

First Mold, And Now Pediculosis

Bancroft School has another health problem this week in addition to the mold.

Letters were sent home Monday warning parents to check their youngsters for pediculosis, or, head lice, and suggesting home remedies and deterrents, and a call to the family physician if any of the creatures are found.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert noted that the letters are "standard procedure" whenever a school nurse discovers lice on a child, and that this happens somewhere in the system three or four times a year.

He said the head lice seem to appear with more frequent slumber parties, and also as a result of where the slumber parties are. He said parents tend to want to get the group out of the main part of the house and send them to the basement.

Roof Raised Again

The administration was to report the latest estimate for repairing the Bancroft Roof to the school committee last night. The committee will likely submit an article for that amount — $186,680 — for the town meeting warrant.

Seifert said it will cover roof repairs, some carpeting, shingling of the entire roof (a job typically necessary after eight or 10 years, he says), installation of more roof drains and repair of the sky lights.

Driver Education May Go

The school committee continues its budget deliberations Tuesday night with the teaching expense and salary accounts, and Seifert said this week that in the interest of holding the line, some things will have to go.

He said the administration will be seeking some "trade-offs," such as dropping driver education in order to buy first grade reading books. He said there will probably also be cutbacks in student research and in-service program offerings, and that graphic arts will be cut back "significantly."

Plant maintenance and operation will come up at the Feb. 20 session.

Rec. Lodge Suggestions Invited

The department of community services is in the process of planning the rebuilding of Recreation Park Lodge. The concept of this new structure is that it be environmentally appropriate to the rustic setting of the park, ecologically oriented, energy efficient and generally suitable to the expressed needs of the department and community.

The department would appreciate any assistance from the community including suggestions regarding type of structure, environmental and ecological features that might be incorporated, books or magazines with appropriate schematic designs or any personal input which might be helpful in this process. Anyone interested in assisting with this project should contact the department of community services.

Selectmen Briefed On Cablevision

John Rakoske of Continental Cablevision briefed the board of selectmen Monday night on cable television and the specific advantages Continental would have in serving Andover.

Town manager Jared S. A. Clark said Continental served Dover, N.H., where he was city manager.

Rikoske said cablevision could be offered to more than 50 percent of Andover, initially, and possibly more if demand were high enough.

The town must initiate proceeding for acquiring cablevision if it is desired in Andover, and its installation would cost the town nothing.

Vacation Program Planned

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. will conduct a Vacation Club during the February vacation week at the Haverhill Street facility. The program is scheduled for the four-day period Feb. 20-23. Boys and girls in Andover may register for the single day's program on Feb. 20.

The Vacation Club is open to boys and girls in grades 3-6. Prior registration is required and the deadline for registering is Feb. 16.

The day camp type program will be supervised by Youth Program Director Ed Neill assisted by Y.M.C.A. Junior Leaders. Activities scheduled during the 9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. period include games, swimming, gym, movies, outdoor activities (weather permitting), etc.

Local Group Examines Haverhill Renovation

Last Thursday afternoon, an unofficial committee of concerned Andover citizens traveled to Haverhill to inspect the Haverhill City Office Building, formerly Haverhill High School.

They went to see first hand some of the architectural possibilities of renovating a school into an office building on the chance that some day that information might be used in Andover, particularly if the town decides to make East Junior High into a new town hall.

The committee was made of selectman Susan T. Poore, Director of Community Development Rhys G. Kear, Margaret Keck, former planning board member, Joyce Robinson, president of the Andover League of Women Voters, and Pam St. John, chairman of the league's land-use committee.

On arriving at the city office building, the committee was shown in to the office of Mayor George Kay Katsaros who gave a brief history of the building and answered questions about its renovation.

The school was planned and built to accommodate 1,500 students, but at the time plans were made to renovate, the student body was closer to 2,500. After a period of uncertainty, the city decided to build a new high school and renovate the old building into offices.

Part of the uncertainty was caused by the early bids which came in from the architect hired to estimate the cost of the job. The initial bid was about $5 million, far too much to be considered.

The plan still had supporters, though, so the architect rebid the job, and with the help of a CETA worker hired by the city, a design for the renovation was arrived at for a price tag of $1.8 million.

The city approved the project, and work began in 1973. The building was ready for occupancy in 1976.

Katsaros said that space in the new offices was allotted according to the square footage which each department occupied in its old offices.

As he began the tour of the building, Katsaros urged the renovation of a school into offices. "If you're going to remodel a school, you have to do a lot of shopping, but bids are coming in low right now."

Most of the offices in the building were formerly classrooms, and basically they received two kinds of alterations. Partitions were built in some to divide offices, and doors were broken through walls to connect several rooms to accommodate an entire department.

The school gymnasium was divided into two floors; one for the school department and one for the audio/visual services offices.

The city council chamber was built in the old library room, and included a lectern for a local radio station to broadcast council meetings.

The auditorium was renovated and now can hold about 500, and is used for town functions or rented for private meetings.

The floors in the building were all carpeted, a different color on each floor. The walls were white and painted with directional signs and arrows the same color as the carpet.

Throughout the building, furnishings from the old department offices were used. Katsaros said that new furniture was purchased only if the old was "falling apart" or if a department expanded in the move and required more office equipment. About 90 percent of the furnishings in the building were already owned by the town at the time of the move.

Members of the committee from Andover expressed generally positive opinions of the results of the Haverhill renovation, with Mrs. Keck praising the work.

"I think they did a great job," she said, "it's so imaginative."

Cultural Series To Begin

The Andover Cultural Series will begin on Saturday, Feb. 10 with the Premier Celebration Dance featuring the VersaTones at the Sheraton Rolling Green.

The opening event of the series gives the community the opportunity to become acquainted with the five main events to follow. Literature on the performers will be available and series tickets will be on sale.

The dance is free to all series ticket holders. Those who have purchased a dance ticket and decide at the event to subscribe to the full or mini series can have their dance price credited toward the series ticket.

The VersaTones is a popular, versatile band conducted by Al Minkinnin. This six-piece group which includes a singer will be playing a wide range of dance music from 8:30-12:30 p.m. Saturday night. There will be a cash bar and complimentary snacks.

The Department of Community Services would like to express appreciation to Harry Axelrod for his gracious support of the Andover Cultural Series through the use of the ballroom.

FISH Volunteers Help Others

The fish, the ancient symbol of the Christian Church, will have a special, modern significance Sunday, FISH Sunday, when members of a local service group by that name take their story to several churches around town.

FISH today symbolizes "people helping people," and provides emergency and short-term volunteer services to Andover residents.

Since its inception in 1971, FISH has provided transportation for many residents, meals for families in times of stress, housework, child care and even overnight lodging when necessary.

While many FISH volunteers come from local churches, the program is non-denominational and non-sectarian, and many volunteers have no church affiliation.

FISH provides its services at no charge; volunteers, who remain anonymous, get their reward from the doing, and the success of the program therefore depends on a large number of volunteers. Many more are needed, particularly to man the telephone. FISH (475-1804) has a 24-hour answering service, and a FISH volunteer is always available to take a call.

Anyone interested in finding out more about FISH, and what he or she can do to help, is asked to call 475-1804.

Selectmen Feel Need For Reuse Answers

By Tim Greene

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark submitted for the approval of selectmen Monday night an article for the town warrant which would allow $25,000 to be used by a committee to investigate the reuse of East Junior High, assuming the town votes at spring town meeting to build a new East Junior High.

The school building committee, which has been studying the possibility of building a new school, seems to have decided that building new would be cheaper than renovating.

Should the town accept the findings of the committee and vote to build a new school, there would still be two years in which to decide the fate of East. The committee proposed by Clark would work on that decision.

Selectmen, though, seemed concerned over the possibility of going to town meeting without estimates on other alternatives.

Selectman Susan T. Poore, who said that she felt the alternatives were promised to the town during December's meeting, remarked, "Not having the alternatives and going to town meeting is like a harkari procedure, and I'm not up for harkari."

Selectman Virginia Cole echoed Mrs. Poore, saying that she believed the townspeople would reject any financing of the committee until they hear the estimated costs of three alternatives: renovation and addition; building new and converting East for other purposes; and building new and razing East.

Apparently indicating her personal preference, she said, "The one who will get the biggest hand at town meeting will be the one who suggests repairing and renovating. I just hope it's not me."

Clark said that according to indications from the school building committee, the cheapest way to solve the issue is to build a new school on a site as yet undetermined, and raze East.

Mrs. Poore continued to warn of the consequences of not having alternative estimates ready for town meeting. "I think town meeting will take all of the people responsible apart," she said. "I'm taking the night off, I wouldn't stay in that hall."

Selectman James Abramson said he was willing to accept the advice of the school building committee on which plan to follow, and warned against developing estimates for all other alternatives.

"If we consider all the alternatives," he said, "it will be 1999 and we still won't have a school."

He suggested that the committee proposed by Clark be composed of members of other committees who have already investigated the East Junior High situation, and who would already be familiar with the problems.

Clark said he favors a committee of from five to seven persons selected from existing committees, including planning, FinCom, school, and the board of selectmen. The $25,000 would pay architectural fees incurred investigating possible uses of a renovated East Junior High.

Apparently the option of razing the old school would remain, but the decision on that would not have to be made until after the new school is built and East is empty.

Mrs. Poore said that according to reaction from townspeople at meetings she has attended, they want to know the total cost to the town of the project. She said they hesitate to approve the building of a new school because it appears cheaper now, and then to have to foot the bill later for a renovation, too.

For example, if the town builds a new school, and decides to convert the old one into a new town hall, cost of the total project would soar far above the cost of just building a new school.

Clark said that he does not recommend considering a new town hall. "That project, in terms of expenditures," he said, "is the last thing on my list."

Public Support Is For East Site

Suddenly last week the wind changed again.

The forces that had been blowing toward a South School site for a new junior high met some resistance from East Jr. High and Doherty parents who want to keep their neighborhood school.

And so, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, who will be making the site selection momentarily, told the public meeting of the school building committee that he hadn't had a clear recommendation for the South site from anyone but the planning board, and by this week sights had turned back toward downtown (see separate story).

"Close" votes had come from the school building committee, which originally voted 5-4 in favor of the South site, and the school committee, which voted 3-0. But Committeemen David Ahouse and Casimir Kolaski were absent, and Elaine Viehmann appears ready to reconsider.

Meanwhile, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert and East Jr. High Principal Richard McGrail have preferred the present site, along with the Doherty PTO and the East Jr. High students.

Sue Lenoe of Morton Street led off the parental opposition with her concern that the character of the town would change if East Jr. High were abandoned. She added that she isn't interested in looking at another new school. "It's going to look just like Kansas City or St. Louis or any other place," she said.

Nancy Jones of Abbot Street said that the East PTO board had voted unanimously in favor of the present site, and read a letter citing "intangible" benefits of staying put as well as some obvious ones, such as convenience to town, Phillips Academy and Memorial Hall Library.

Some 350 youths now walk to East, the letter said, and the neighborhood location encourages use of school resources after school. Furthermore, it said, many parents chose to live right in town because of the nearness to the school.

Sue Driscoll of the East Student Council said the student reps had voted for the present site, feeling that a move south would interrupt the extra-curricular activities,

"and extra-curricular activities are a big part of the junior high experience," she said.

No Site Perfect

Planning Board Chairman David Erickson admitted that "none of the four viable sites (East, South, Sanborn or Cross Street) is perfect." But, he said, the board was looking at where the population is going to be in the next 20 to 40 years. He said that in the long-run they'd see a 30 percent increase in the South area and a 50 to 70 percent in the Cross Street area, though the quickest growth will come in the former. He said there are now 350 approved building lots in South Andover.

When both areas are totally developed, however, he said "it's a washout" numbers wise.

At saturation point, there will be 1125 students within half a mile of South and 1035 within half a mile of Cross Street. There are now 1820 within half a mile of East, and more than half of them walk.

Erickson said traffic would be the biggest problem at South, because of a number of narrow and winding roads, and busing would increase some 30 to 40 percent.

Clark said subsequently that improvement of roads there — namely Ballardvale Road which has some steep hills and sharp curves — and the building of sidewalks, would cost another quarter of a million dollars.

Erickson said the board also favored South because of its size: 50.8 acres compared to 67.5 at Sanborn, 94.6 at Cross Street and 20.8 at East.

"With only 20 acres to begin with," he said, "I think there's a tremendous temptation to tear the whole thing down."

Dick Landry of the building committee noted a building on the East site would require two stories, whereas one would do at South. "That would eliminate the problem of handicapped facilities," he said, "but it would make twice as much roof."

Why Not Shawshen

Joyce Robinson asked why the Shawshen Road site was being excluded from consideration.

Ahouse said that, Seifert was rather firm against the campus, "and if he doesn't want it, we can't really recommend it to the state."

Mrs. Viehmann noted that "there are enough problems with vandalism and drugs now," and that Seifert feels that a greater concentration of teens would encourage even more drug sellers to come into the area.

"If there's a concentration of drug pushers, then why not concentrate on people to apprehend them?" Mrs. Robinson asked.

"It's not that simple," Mrs. Viehmann replied. "We have the feeling that someone is in the high school now and we can't find out who it is."

Ahouse also spoke out for the flexibility of a separate junior high away from the other two secondary schools. "In the next five to 10 years we may close down an elementary school," he said. "Perhaps then we would have a true middle school, or some other arrangement."

Adventure Program In Music

"Babar and the B's," an Adventure in Music family concert, will be performed at the Reading Memorial High School Auditorium on Feb. 11 at 1 and 3 p.m.

"The Story of Babar, the Little Elephant" will be narrated by Frank Avruch, who is well-known as the chief announcer at WCVB-TV, channel 5. Early in his career, Avruch became internationally famous as Bozo the Clown on WHDH-TV.

Any students wishing to participate in the April 8 concert which will involve dance, pantomime and gymnastics, may audition at Coolidge Jr. High School in Reading on Thursday Feb. 15, 3:30-5:30 p.m. It is not necessary for students to have previous training in any of these areas in order to audition.

The second edition of the school newspaper, 'West Side Story,' was distributed to student government members on Friday, Feb. 2. Highlights of the paper include gossip, cartoons, team pictures, and a crossword puzzle. Also included are articles and pictures about the annual school production, F.L.I.P.P.E.D., held last weekend.

The girls basketball team recently played Wilmington at home. It was an exciting game, with West the final victors in a 40-37 game. The high scorer was Heather Thomson (11 points), playing in her first game since an injury early in the season.

Also playing well were Debbie Lasota, Sandy Efinger, Elise Balboni, and Anne Marie Conconi. Their record is now 4-2.

The freshman team played East on Saturday, Jan. 27, at West. Many spectators showed up to cheer the teams on. West was leading at the end of the first half 29-23, but East made a comeback in the second half beating West 56-41. Playing well for West were Ted Kelley, Russell Lewis, Craig Horgan, Ken Heydt, David Fluet, and Dennis Glynn. On Jan. 30, they defeated Austin Prep, 72-22. Ted Kelley and Tim Wilkins were the top scorers.

Coming up on the student government calendar is a ninth grade East-West dance to be held Feb. 23 at West.

Contrary to popular belief, under-inflated tires do not provide better traction in snow. Triple-A says under-inflation only causes excessive heat build-up, reduced tread life and wasted gasoline.

Could you point out a Troll in a group of Goblins? What's the difference between an Elf and a Dwarf? To find out, come to the Boston Children's Theatre's production of "The Hobbit" at New England Life Hall. Performances are scheduled for Feb. 17, during school vacation week Feb. 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, and March 3 and 10 at 2 p.m.

Patterson To Lead Ski Tour

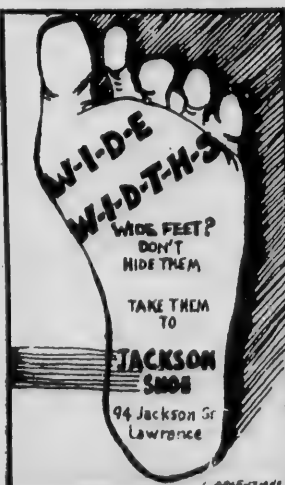

G. Warren Patterson will lead a ski tour outing Saturday, Feb. 10, for all area Bill Koch Cross Country Ski League members. Skiers will meet at 10 a.m. on the Phillips Academy football field. There is the possibility that a 7th District make-up race will be scheduled for Saturday also. Interested team members can receive definite information on the race by calling Moor and Mountain, Thursday evening.

Twelve area members met last Saturday to work on skiing skills. G. Warren Patterson led the coaching session which included exercises to increase stamina and tag games on skis to develop coordination and balance. The double polling technique will be discussed this week.

Two area team members entered the 7th District Race in Winchendon last Saturday. In the Class V (9 and under,) Joseph Blandini received a tenth place ribbon. In the Class III (13 and under,) Jerry Witt received an honorable mention.

The children involved in the ATP Newswriting course have been spending a great deal of time interviewing various teachers in their schools. They learned good techniques of interviewing when Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald from the Lawrence Eagle Tribune came to speak to them. They then went into interviewing techniques further with Miss Diane Helfrich, their coordinator.

Art With Mr. Bachelder

James Bachelder is the art teacher at Sanborn School. He has been teaching at the Sanborn School since September. He has lived in Andover all of his life. Mr. Bachelder is a young man who thinks that art is interesting. Mr. Bachelder said, "It applies to everything you do in life."

Mr. Bachelder became interested in art when he was about four years old. He said that he thinks he can get a lot of people interested in art and he certainly has.

Sixth Graders Work Hard!

My teacher, Mrs. Caplan, really enjoys teaching at the West Elementary School in Andover. She teaches sixth grade and some of the activities they are doing, or planning to do are: research papers, working on map skills, creative writing, and they will be putting on a social studies fair.

There are some special things that Mrs. Caplan likes to do with her class. They are improving study skills and perfecting individual styles in writing.

In her spare time she likes to spend time with her family, read, and do needlework.

A Terrific Phys Ed Teacher

Miss Louise Rozzi is a physical education teacher at the West Elementary School. Miss Rozzi likes teaching physical education because it uses movement as a means to educate children. She is doing gymnastics with the older children right now and with the younger children she really likes to do her movement exploration unit. The satisfaction that Miss Rozzi gets out of teaching physical education is when she knows that a student is trying his best at whatever he is doing.

Miss Rozzi really likes Andover. She likes working in and around her house in her spare time. She likes playing tennis and skiing as sports. Her favorite things are the sunrise, and being with her family and friends. We think that she's a terrific teacher.

East Jr. High Happenings

By Karen Jo Giammusso

Last Friday the boys' freshmen basketball team defeated Methuen, 78-52.

In the early part of the game the score was fairly close. However, by second period East was clearly ahead and led throughout the game.

Hunger Awareness Week is coming up in March. Students from the high school, West Junior High and East meet each week to work on the project. Plans include the cafeteria serving rice and water as an alternative meal and the profits will go to CARE. Students will visit the elementary schools to discuss the problem of world hunger. The hope is to get the whole community involved in F.A.S.T. (Fight Against Starvation Today).

Plans have been made for an East-West dance at West for all ninth grade students to be held on Feb. 23. Plans are also underway to hold a dance for all East students on March 16.

As most people know, the town is currently trying to decide what will happen to East Junior High School. Last Friday I surveyed some of the ninth grade students to see what their opinion was. When asked: "If a new East Junior High School is built rather than this one renovated, would you prefer the present location of the South School area?" Nine out of ten said they preferred the present location. It's close to town so you can walk up-town. The other location is too close to West and you'd need more buses for the students in the Shawsheen — Elm Street area.

"This location — it's handy to everything."

"I think it should be here because it's closer to all the elementary schools that go to East and because there's more room for after school activities (the field)."

South School area — by the time the school is completed the bulk of the students are going to be down in that area plus they have more land for better facilities down on the proposed site."

"I think they should renovate instead of rebuilding. Where are they doing to get another building like this?"

"Present location — I think more kids live around here than in the South area."

Susan Driscoll, president of East's student council, hopes to have a questionnaire given to all the students so that everyone will have a chance to give their opinion on the matter.

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

The Andover High School American Field Service (A.F.S.) had a very busy week and weekend. They sponsored A.F.S. week at the high school. Throughout last week posters publicized A.F.S. and the brotherhood it spreads. These posters were seen in many different languages from English to Armenian. Almost every morning there was an announcement explaining what activities would be going on that day or explaining something about the club.

Last weekend was A.F.S. weekend. A.F.S. students staying in Andover and area towns stayed with A.F.S. club members during the weekend. Friday the students visited the high school. They attended social studies and foreign language classes where they spoke about their country and answered questions concerning the program. Americans who had visited other countries also came to speak. They told of the country where they had lived and compared it to America. All the students shared many experiences with the classes. Even the cafeteria participated in this day. They had ethnic foods for lunch and songs from around the world playing throughout the lunch periods. The day proved to be profitable for everyone.

The student advisory council has developed a new program for seniors. Right now, it's a trial project. Fifty interested seniors are able to sign-up to do volunteer work. This work includes helping the elderly, working on political campaigns or many more projects, in all fields. After sixty hours of this volunteer work the student is required to write an evaluation of the project and then he will receive .5 credits. The work may be done during or after school. Anyone interested is encouraged to speak to a SAC member or to Claus Dengler. It is hoped that this will interest many students and in time become a school-wide project.

Betsy Wall Is Triple Winner

Triple winner Betsy Wall and double winners Tracey McCoy, Lulu Donahue, Julie Morton, Jennifer Smith and Carol Robb paced the Andover-North Andover YMCA Seastars in a hard fought meet with the Greendale YMCA Gators of Worcester.

Swimming in Class B, Wall won the 100 meter backstroke and the 50 meter freestyle in a near dead heat finish with teammate Smith who was second by one tenth of a second. Wall and Smith also swam on the winning 200 meter medley relay with McCoy and Morton. McCoy won the 200 meter individual medley for her double and Morton added a second place in the 100 meter breaststroke to help Andover to a 53-18 victory.

Morton also led off the winning meter freestyle relay, teaming with Donahue, Smith and Robb for first place. Donahue won the 100 meter freestyle and Robb took her seventh first place in the 500 meter freestyle in league competition for her double. Robb was also second in the 200 meter freestyle with Donahue taking third place points. Anne Costello won the 100 meter breaststroke, came in second in the 100 meter freestyle and third in the 200 meter individual medley.

The Class C Seastars took a 44-38 victory over Greendale with a balanced attack that saw every swimmer contribute. Individual winners for Andover were Andrea Matchett in the 200 meter freestyle, Abby Robb in the 50 meter backstroke, Karen McKay in the 50 meter breaststroke and Lisa Pomeroy in the diving competition. The 200 meter freestyle relay team of Lynn McDonald, Kate Inskeep, Sarah Gershenberg and Jennifer Loyall also took a first. Second place points were earned by Robb in the 50 meter butterfly and 200 meter freestyle, Matchett in the 100 meter freestyle and Mary Ann Ponti in the 200 meter individual medley. Ponti also took a third in the 100 meter freestyle as did Cathy Merrill in the 50 meter freestyle and 200 meter individual medley, Moira Schwing in the 50 meter butterfly and Maureen Lynch in the 50 meter backstroke.

Kathy McElroy won a photo finish for first place in the 50 meter freestyle in Class D. Amy Morton took a first in the diving and a third in the 50 meter breaststroke. Also adding points for Andover were Carilyn Cronin with seconds in the 50 meter butterfly and 100 meter individual medley; Melissa Morton, second in diving; Kara Hannon with thirds in the 50 meter backstroke and 100 meter freestyle; and Mary Robb, third in the 50 meter butterfly.

Swimming in Class E, Alicia Policinski and Kate Robb each took individual first places. Policinski won the 25 meter butterfly and took second in the 25 meter freestyle while Robb won the 100 meter individual medley.

Erika Sandler swam to a second place finish in the 25 meter breaststroke while Robb took third honors. Sandler also finished third in the 50 meter freestyle. Cindy McDonald had two thirds for the day in the 25 meter freestyle and 25 meter backstroke.

Next Saturday the Seastar girls' team will entertain the team from the Marblehead YMCA at the Haverhill Street building at 1 p.m. with the diving competition.

Participates In Study Program

Katharine Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman G. Stephens of 13 Summer St., Andover, is one of 37 students at Emma Willard School, Troy, NY, participating in off-campus Independent Study Programs during this 10-week winter term. Kathy, who is a junior at this all-girl college preparatory school, is an intern at Rensselaer County Probation Department in Troy.

In describing her work at the Probation Office, Kathy says, "I've done clerical work, gone on home and school visits, and even gone to County Court where I sat in on the trial of a man who was charged with third degree theft, felony murder, and intent to murder. He was convicted of all three! In the future, I will be doing even more, such as making trips to police court, family court, and the jails."

Kathy, who came to Emma Willard last year after having attended Andover East Junior High School, has been active on the Troy campus in Campus Players (school drama group); Casa Hispanica — the school's language house; and in Interact, which is the school's community outreach student program. She finds her Independent Study Project especially compelling, because it affords her the unique opportunity to experience at first hand the many problems of the less fortunate.

Kathy's father is associated with Sales Computrol in Ridgefield, Conn.

Pops Concert Planned At YWCA

The Greater Lawrence YWCA will present its annual Pops Concert on Friday, March 9th at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium at the YW, 38 Lawrence Street, Lawrence. Twenty musicians from the Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Domenic Teoli will perform in a program of familiar melodies. Two musical popular shows will be featured as well as a sing-a-long for audience participation. Wine and snacks will be available with table service. A festive welcome to spring atmosphere will provide an evening of entertainment and pleasure for those attending.

A large committee is making arrangements for the concert and may be contacted for tickets and reservations. Included are the following from Andover and North Andover:

Mrs. Dorothy Bates, Mrs. Elaine Burke, Mrs. Carol Davis, Mrs. Marilyn Fitzgerald, Mrs. Lola Monks, Mrs. Susan Schmitke, Mrs. Rose White, Mrs. Ann Daly, Mrs. Carole Donahue, Miss Mona Manzi, Mrs. Pat Piazza, Mrs. Ethel Sherman.

To Discuss Flower Arranging

The regular monthly meeting of the spade and Trowel Garden Club will be held 8 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 13, at the residence of Mrs. Peggy Turgiss, 151 High Plain Road, Andover.

Mary McDougall will present a lecture and a demonstration on the Art of Flower Arranging.

Co-hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Florence Anderson and Mrs. Vicki Anderson.

Train yourself to pay attention to differences in quality. A higher-priced item may be worth the extra cost if it offers longer performance, but the lowest-priced may do just as well.

Meeting To Feature Movie

"Joyce at Thirtyfour," is the title of a movie to be shown at the February meeting of the Andover-Georgetown Branch of the American Association of University Women, to be held on Feb. 15, 7:30 p.m., at the Atkinson Elementary School, located off Mass. Avenue, North Andover.

The movie is a documentary of a woman who has her first baby at the age of thirty-four, and depicts how this event affects her career and her relationship with her husband. After seeing the film, discussion groups will be formed so that members and guests can share their feelings and reactions to the film.

In addition to the branch's monthly meetings, there are several supplemental activities which take place at members' homes. There is a Book Discussion group which meets Friday mornings once a month, and another which meets in the evenings, the second Thursday of each month. This month's selection for discussion will be "The Dragons of Eden," by Carl Sagan. There is also a group meeting for a series of workshops, entitled, "Women as Agents of Change." Another study group meets Monday evenings to discuss, "Values Clarification," under the leadership of the branch topic chairman.

Members are also working on plans for a Spring Luncheon and panel discussion on, "Creative Approaches to Learning," to be held on May 5. For further information concerning the February meeting or any of the other Branch offerings, contact Sue Buehler or Pat Himber of Andover, or Suzanne Robinson of North Andover.

LaLeche League To Meet

La Leche League of Andover will hold its second in a series of four monthly meetings on Thursday, Feb. 8 at 8 p.m. at the home of Deborah Gesing, 61 Union St., North Andover. An informal discussion on The Art of Breastfeeding and Overcoming Difficulties will be presented by League Leaders Joy Kubit and Beverly Jones.

All interested women are invited and babies are welcome. Mothers will have an opportunity to share experiences and offer support to one another. La Leche League is a nonsectarian, nonprofit organization dedicated to good mothering through breastfeeding. Further information is available from Joy Kubit, 8 Lansbury Lane, Andover or Beverly Jones, 155 Salem St., No. Andover.

Four Seasons Club Meets

The members of the Four Seasons Garden Club met Feb. 8, 1979 at the home of Mrs. Leo Griffin, 6 Sandlewood Lane, Andover to hear Mrs. Belle Crooker. Her topic was Window Dressing with Plants and House Plant Pest Control. Helping the Hostess were Mrs. Kenneth Landry and Mrs. William Burke.

Valentine Card Party

On Tuesday, Feb. 13, The November Club will sponsor a Wine, Cheese, and Cards Valentine party for members and guests. Playing will commence at 10 a.m. and end at 2 p.m. The deadline for reservations is Feb. 10, and they may be made by calling Mrs. David R. Beckerman or Mrs. Harry R. Dow, III.

Mrs. David C. Sweetser

Sweetser - Malconian

In a candlelight ceremony at Christ Episcopal Church, Needham, Miss Jayne Alice Malconian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Malconian, recently became the bride of David D. Sweetser, son of Mrs. C. W. Sweetser, 40 Wild Rose Drive, Andover, and the late Charles W. Sweetser.

The Rev. Harold D. Chase and the Rev. John Nichols officiated at the double ring ceremony, and a reception followed in the ballroom of the Colonnade Hotel, Boston.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line ivory satin gown with pearled Alencon lace on the bodice and a lace bordered train. Her three tiered, lace appliqued veil was attached to a pearlized crescent cap, and she carried a cascade of ivory and pink roses.

Acting as maid of honor for her cousin was Miss Alyce Marie Doughty of Falmouth, Maine, who wore a burgundy gown with a chiffon cape and a cascade of pink and red roses.

Identically gowned were the bridesmaids: Mrs. Ann M. Malconian of Kansas City, Missouri, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Diane M. Sweetser of Andover, sister of the groom; Miss Ann M. Moore and Miss Maureen Ryan of Needham, Miss Patricia McGillivray of Natick and Miss Karin A. O'Connell of Marlboro. Miss Cynthia D. Ross of Holliston served as guest book attendant.

Serving his brother as best man was Mark F. Sweetser of Andover. Ushers were Richard G. Malconian of Needham and Mark K. Malconian of Kansas City, Mo., brothers of the bride; Joseph Penick and Thomas Barenboim of Andover, Frederick Keach of Greenland, N. H., and James Soule of Portland, Maine.

The bride is a graduate of Needham High School, Westbrook College and Framingham Union Hospital School of Nursing. She has been employed as a registered nurse at Framingham Union Hospital.

Mr. Sweetser is a graduate of Andover High School and Bowdoin College. He is a salesman in the group sales division of New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

After a honeymoon in Bermuda, they will reside in Cincinnati, Ohio.

NOW Meeting

A Greater Lawrence N.O.W. General meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 14, 7:30 p.m. at Bay State National Bank, 84 Main St., Andover.

The guest speaker will be Judith Nathanson, a practicing attorney with the Merrimack Valley Legal Services. She will speak partly on her role in helping women in the area of domestic violence, and she will answer questions about how our present laws effect women.

Mushrooms

The eating of mushrooms has mushroomed since ancient times. In early Egypt only the pharaohs were allowed to eat them. In later ages the prized fungi were consumed chiefly by royalty and the nobility.

Despite its history of lofty status, 91 percent of a mushroom's flesh is water.

New East

Clark said he feels that new construction is the best route, in view of the cost of renovation. The cost will be almost a million dollars more to renovate and meet the educational specifications, compared to constructing a new facility.

Clark, who was scheduled to meet with the school committee on the site question Wednesday night, said he was leaning toward locating the new school adjacent to the present structure rather than the South school site.

The school committee had favored the South site in a previous close vote, but were scheduled to reconsider the matter last night.

The manager said that topographically, the South school site, containing 65 acres of flat land, is better, adding that from a long range sense, South would be a better site than the East Junior High location.

Disadvantages are the increased transportation costs which would result, and extensive site work which would add to the total cost of the new facility.

At East, there is a public acceptance of the area, residents are accustomed to it being there, there is access to the school by walking and for buses it is better than would be the South site. Also, the accessibility to such facilities as the library and Phillips Academy is better, Clark said.

He also noted that the availability of the building and facilities such as tennis courts and playfields makes the East site more advantageous from a community-use standpoint.

"The advantages of the South site are not so compelling as to outweigh the advantages of keeping the school at the east or central location," Clark concluded.

Just where on the Doherty-East Junior High campus the school would be placed has not been decided. Clark said he did not feel that the matter of siting the building on the property has been adequately looked at as yet.

With the East the only project to be recommended at this time, the voters will be asked to approve the continuing of the planning and design stages of a new building at the April 23 town meeting.

The option will also be given for renovation of the present structure, which is a more expensive proposition.

"The East project will be recommended because of physical deficiencies which affect the educational program," Clark said.

Auditorium

capital funding projected, for municipalities.

Clark said that due to the tax cap plans, the renovation and additions to the high and West Junior high, plus the auditorium, must be delayed, until such time as such projects can be released from debt service stipulations in the proposed tax cap.

Also, he said, the school department must pick up their portion of the deficit caused by the tax cap in view of operations of town department being as important as school functions.

"Until we get the debt service out of the tax cap, or can take advantage of increased revenues for other than direct tax rate application, I don't see how we can pay for this total school project.

Estimates of the total project, including the East Junior high construction are in the $12-$15 million category.

As for the tax cap limitations, Clark said that the thinking of all municipal administrators must change. "We are not going to have the money with which to work, and will have to move toward more efficiency, realizing that you can't completely change the way government does business.

Noting that the town couldn't possibly pay for the total school project through the tax cap imposition, Clark noted that the "town would have to cut some $4-$3.5 million from town-school operations, and that incurring an additional $1 million in debt service for such a project is unthinkable."

Clark said that with some clarification or reduction in debt limitations, through action by the legislature, possibly the west portion of the project could be brought back before the voters at the October town meeting for a decision on whether to resume the planning and design portion of the projects.

East Reuse

and renovation and additions at the high school and West Junior High, we certainly can't afford to renovate for town offices. While it might be nice to think of new offices, it is of the lowest priority at this time," the manager noted.

"We are limited to doing only what we can afford. We can't use new and additional revenues for such projects due to the tax cap proposal. That element of the governor's plan is the most discouraging.

"It hinders economic and industrial development in the state. Municipalities should be encouraged toward industrial and economic growth. But with new revenues mandated to be applied to reducing the tax rate, such growth is impeded, and subsequently the state's development is hindered," Clark noted.

He said that if a decision had to be made right now, he would recommend demolition of East Junior High as the least expensive alternative.

But with appointment of a study committee and time to make examination through continued use of the building as a school facility during construction, a proper decision can be reached.

"If we can wait one or two years to make the decision it will be beneficial. We can not act precipitously. If the tax cap is modified in a couple of years, then possibly we can afford to use the East Junior High building.

the school committee has approved, no more, no less.

"If the building committee can also accomplish the same objectives the school committee has defined in a manner less expensive, then they have provided a valuable service," Clark said.

He feels, then that it is necessary to once again review the specifications with an eye toward making additional savings, without jeopardizing the educational program.

Clark said his responsibility he feels is to work with the school committee and school building group to develop a consensus of what is absolutely needed for the educational system.

He said that possibly deficiencies in some buildings are a result of substituting judgment for short term budget considerations, with too little understanding of the educational program.

Clark said he would be working with the educational and building committees to create a better understanding and end up with a good educational facility meeting present and future school needs, taking into account educational and fiscal perspectives.

AFS Hosts Students From Many Nations

Andover had its own United Nations over the weekend, as the American Field Service Club of Andover High hosted foreign exchange students from nearby towns for three days of activity. The AFS weekend was coordinated by AFS Club President Paige Whitley and Chairman Aimee Poor.

The visiting students arrived at Andover High Friday morning and spoke to various language and social studies classes during the day. Those participating were Mark Cohen of South Africa, Agnes Polzl of Austria and Geir Slapo of Norway, all living this year in Andover; and Sophie Durand of France, Stephanie Black of New Zealand, Antonio Prieto of Chile, Elisa Aquino of Brazil, Gloria DeSilva of Paraguay and Renate Pfeiffer of Switzerland, who are spending this year in neighboring communities.

Friday evening an international buffet dinner was held at Christ Church for both the student and adult chapters, coordinated by Mrs. Nina Asgeirsson and Mrs. Phyllis Poor. The AHS Handbell Choir, under the direction of Keith Gould, performed selections from around the world, and returnees Stacy Zeder and Linda Syiek entertained with slides and music from Thailand and Greece.

Saturday, the guest students and their hosts swam at the VoTech, played volleyball and basketball at the West Jr. High gym, and topped off the day with a party.

The weekend activities ended after a pancake breakfast Sunday morning.

The AFS Club, guided by Timothy Thomas and Molly Ryden of Andover High, consists of approximately 40 students. Presently the group is seeking prospective host families for next year's foreign students, and is planning a short-term exchange with a club in another part of the country.

New Building More Efficient, Cheaper

By Linda S. Corbett

Cheaper, more efficient, more energy saving, maybe smaller and most of all, around a million dollars cheaper.

That's how a brand new school stacked up against a renovated East Jr. High during the public session of the school building committee last Wednesday night.

The job of explaining their decision to go with a new building fell to Dick Landry of the building group.

What they were looking for, he told the 60 to 70 interested townspeople, was a building that would house 750 students, with 135 square feet per junior high student as recommended by the state. He said the state would, therefore, theoretically pick up half the tab of a building of about 101,250 square feet.

He said the state had implied, however, they would fund beyond that size because of the nature of the existing junior high; hence plans for an addition as well. Much square footage is necessary to circulate students between the three wings of the present building, much less an addition, he said, and more space is needed to bring the educational facilities up to present-day snuff.

The first two schemes presented to the committee by the architects (Perley Gilbert Associates of Lowell) had been discarded quickly, Landry said, because they were considered inadequate. Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, who is ultimately responsible for the town's buildings, added that they were trying to cram too many requirements into too small a space and there was even a question if the state would even participate in a "compromised" project.

Landry described the other renovation/addition schemes as follows:

Scheme 3

Renovation of the entire existing building (98,720 sq. ft.) with a 33,988-square-foot addition to include a gym, lockers and connecting corridor, for a total of 132,700 square feet. Sitework would include seven tennis courts, two basketball courts, two volleyball courts and new parking along Bartlet Street. Approximate total cost: $8,000,000.

Scheme 4

Demolition of the old Punchard wing, with a 61,416-square-foot addition in its place, and renovation of the remaining building (67,940 sq. ft.). Addition would include gym, lockers, connecting corridor and classrooms. Sitework similar to Scheme 3. Approximate total cost: $8,100,000. (The price tag is slightly higher despite the smaller size (129,356 sq. ft.) because of the required demolition work.

Scheme 5

Abandoning of the Punchard wing altogether, with a 58,988-square-foot addition at the rear of the present school, to contain a gym, lockers and classrooms. Stowe and Jackson buildings would be demolished and other sitework would be similar to Schemes 3 and 4. Total space, including 67,940 square feet of renovations: 126,923 square feet. Approximate cost: $7,900,000.

A New School

Schemes 6 and 7 would both abandon the existing East Jr. High and build a new junior high. Stowe, Jackson and the power plant buildings would be demolished, with a new underground boiler behind Doherty to provide heating for it and East if it was re-used. Sitework would include six tennis courts, two basketball courts, rebuilt playing fields (including a new track) and new parking areas. Cost for a new building of 93,000 square feet: $6,300,000 for construction plus $400,000 for the new boiler. Total: $6,700,000.

The main reason for the smaller area, Landry repeated, is the more efficient circulation space. Some 12,000 square feet of an addition would be required just to circulate students, he said. There would also have to be ramps in the auditorium, because it is at a different level from the other wings, and other facilities built in for the handicapped.

Educational Needs

School Committee Chairman David Ahouse pointed out that present-day educational needs can't be met in the existing East Jr. High.

For example, he said, plans include a 5 to 6,000-square-foot media center to replace the present 1900-square-foot library (the one at West Elementary School is larger than that). He also added would be science labs and a health room (there's none now).

Furthermore, Ahouse said many of the classrooms are below the 750-square-foot minimum suggested by the state.

"We're asking for 800 or 850 square feet," he said, "which is average." Clark added that more than half are less than 690 square feet. "It's clearly a substandard facility," he said.

In answer to a question from the audience about declining enrollments, Ahouse said they were "designing for less than we have now." The current secondary enrollment is 1600, and he said they're anticipating 1400 to 1500.

Renovation Costs

Landry noted that the major cost of renovations is in bringing the whole building up to present state code standards, to satisfy some 17 different agencies.

For example, he said, they could leave the corridors the size they are, but would have to redo them with a different class of finish materials.

Sue Lenoe of Morton Street said she couldn't buy the fact that an architect can't design a renovation so it would be acceptable.

School Committeeman Elaine Viehmann said that in Lowell, bids for a similar renovation project came in $2 million higher than the architect's original estimate. This year, she said, Arlington went out to bid and had only one contractor respond. His price was also $2 million more than they expected.

renovating any more," Mrs. Viehmann said, "because they don't know what they're going to find when they open a wall."

"When it looks like new construction will be less expensive," she said, "then I'm doubly in favor of it."

Another member of the building committee noted that a new building with narrower halls and lower ceilings, as well as new windows, would be more economical and more energy-conscious in the long run.

Town Meeting Moves To P.A. Cage

The ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

FEBRUARY 8, 1979

The Case Memorial Cage at Phillips Academy will be the site of the annual town meeting to begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 23.

Selectmen Monday night approved the suggestion of Town Clerk Elden R. Salter to use the cage instead of the high school gymnasium for the annual session.

The meeting, generally held in Memorial Auditorium at East Junior High, has to be moved due to the conditions there. A portion of the ceiling fell, and the remaining plaster is in such a precarious condition that the hall is not to be used until further notice.

Salter said Monday night school officials said it was a "touch and go" situation as far as the auditorium being usable by town meeting time.

Georg Neilson, business manager at Phillips Academy, had offered use of the cage there to the town, Salter reported, adding that from an economic standpoint, it was advantageous.

Use of the high school gym would require the renting of a sound system, plus setting up and taking down chairs each night for the meeting which is expected to run over a four to five night period.

At Phillips, the sound system is in place, and the only cost to the town would be the renting of the chairs and paying custodians. Chairs would have to be rented in either location, but could be left up at the cage, rather than taken down and reset the next night, which would be the case at the high school gym.

Selectman Virginia Cole, while not opposed to the use of the cage, said she preferred to have the town meeting in a town facility, a feeling similarly expressed by Selectman Susan T. Poore.

Chairman Edward M. Harris noted that there was precedent for use of the gym. The facility was used about ten years ago when over 2,000 people showed up for the special summer town meeting to rezone and provide funds for utilities for the new Raytheon plant in West Andover.

It was also used in the 30's for an annual town meeting which acted upon construction funds for what is now the East Junior High School.

Election Tempo Still Slow

Activity among candidates has picked up somewhat the past week, but the election roster was still sparse as of Wednesday.

Contests for three year terms on the board of selectmen and school committee exist, but as of midweek no candidates had come forth for the one year selectman's term which will fill a vacancy and complete the term of Selectman Albert Cole who resigned Feb. 1.

Incumbent Susan T. Poore has taken nomination papers seeking re-election to another three year term and was joined this week in the race by former Selectman Philip J. Salamone of Carisbrooke St. Salamone was appointed to the board to fill a vacancy, then failed in his bid for election to a full term in last year's election. Also seeking the three-year term will be Dr. Nicholas Rizzo of Jenkins Road who ran unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination for Congress last fall.

In the school committee contest, Incumbent Joseph T. Finn of Highland Road will seek re-election and will be joined in the race by John Eaton of 233 Andover St. and Edward Kaufman, 5 Miles Circle. Two seats are open on the board this year. Chairman David R. Ahouse is not seeking re-election.

Uncontested as of midweek are Moderator James D. Doherty for a one year term, Housing Authority Chairman Thomas R. Wallace for a five year term and Vocational School Board member James Booth for a three year term.

Candidates have until 4:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 26, to file nomination papers with the town clerk.

No School: Basically A Parental Decision

Two bus drivers decided it was too slippery to drive last Wednesday after a nighttime snow fall, another slid off Ballardvale Road, and finally, afternoon kindergarten was cancelled to give the roads a little longer to dry off.

Parental reaction generally seemed to favor the drivers' actions but Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert reminded parents this week that in the final analysis, they're really the ones responsible for deciding whether the roads are safe or not.

"I don't think they should get angry at the person who decides there should or should not be school," he said. "If parents don't feel conditions are safe, they should keep their youngsters home or drive themselves."

One veteran driver had turned around halfway through his high school-junior high route, feeling the roads were too slippery. Another drove only his early route before turning back, and a third slipped off a hilly section of Ballardvale Road. No one was injured and the driver finally managed to work his way back onto the street. Still a fourth was stuck out on Salem Street near Harold Parker, backing up traffic.

Transportation Assistant Sam Arcidy said several drivers came in to see him after their routes, and several others called — in addition to lots of parents.

After getting an update on the weather and talking with police and the public works department, Arcidy cancelled the noontime buses and hence, afternoon kindergarten. He said this has happened several times in the past, because of driving conditions that have worsened since the morning runs.

The kindergarten drivers, Arcidy said, cover "every nook and cranny of town," often by back roads that the regular buses don't normally travel. They can stay slippery longer, he added.

Morning kindergarten parents were notified and their youngsters fed and kept at school, then sent home on the regular afternoon buses. They were also given the option of picking up their youngsters themselves.

Arcidy said he'd never had a case where the drivers had elected not to drive before, but added, "they're the pro's. They drive those routes every day. I'm not a bus driver. I can't travel every road in town. I have to go with the judgement they exercised."

Seifert, who makes the decision on whether to have school or not, said he made his "usual" stormy day rounds last Wednesday, traveling key roads between 5 and 5:30 a.m. in his small car and making several calls.

"I didn't have any trouble," he said, and added that school was also held in surrounding communities. He did, however, admit that it turned slippery later.

"Some people seem to think I get up and look out the window and go back to bed," he said, and repeated his feeling that if parents don't feel it's safe, they should make that decision themselves.

Seifert also said he'd have to take the drivers' word, but if it happens again he said he'd have to develop some sort of back-up bus system.

Parents Ask More Teachers

A group of South School parents were expected to turn out at the school committee meeting last night to ask for more teachers for their early grades, beginning next fall.

Mrs. Jody Graves, who led the delegation along with Mrs. Karen Crane and Mrs. June Blake, said they felt that now, during budget deliberations, was the time to make their plea for a lower teacher-pupil ratio next year.

In a letter to rally some 100 kindergarten and first grade parents, they called on the school committee to "follow their own policy" and bring the teacher-pupil ratios down (20:1 in kindergarten and 23:1 in grades 1 and 2) with additional qualified teachers, not aides.

In a prepared statement Wednesday night, Mrs. Graves noted that the ratios are pretty well within the policy in all the other schools in the system, but that there are inequities at South.

"South School teachers are trying to give the same quality education while dealing with ratios of 26:1 in kindergarten and 26.5:1 in first," the statement said. "South's kindergarten is 21 percent larger than the average kindergarten in the system, and the first grade is 25 percent larger."

"We would like to express our appreciation for the excellent job our teachers are doing in the classroom," the statement went on. "We also feel fortunate to have so many aides and volunteers working in our school. However, it is not fair to our children to be in such large classes."

Mrs. Graves and her committee had called all of the elementary schools last week, to come up with the following ratios:

Kindergarten: Bancroft, 19:1; Doherty, 25:1; Sanborn, 19:1 and 22:1; Shawsheen, 17:1 and 15:1; South, 27:1 and 25:1; West Traditional, 25:1 and 18:1 and Contemporary, 22:1 and 20:1.

First grade: Bancroft, 18:1 in three classes; Doherty, 21:1 in two classes; Sanborn, about to have three teachers for 60 pupils; Shawsheen, 15:1 and 18:1; South, 28:1 and 25:1; West Traditional 24:1 and 24:1; and West Contemporary, 22:1 and 22:1.

Critically Injured

Andover Collector-Treasurer Myron H. Muise, 47, 20 Alderbrook Road, was listed in critical but stable condition in the intensive care unit at Lawrence General hospital Wednesday, suffering from multiple injuries sustained in an accident Monday night.

Muise was driving his car when it struck a tree in front of 396 South Main street about 7:22 p.m. Monday, according to Andover police.

It is believed other cars were involved in the accident, but reports had not been completed by police as of Wednesday.

If You Think You're Confused

It would seem that each time some semblance of progress and understanding begins to emerge from the school building issue, other facets enter consideration to further confuse matters.

Events of the past week point toward voters being asked at town meeting in April to advise the school building committee on whether to build a new East Junior High or renovate the old, with the former being strongly advocated by the committee and administration.

It will be suggested that construction of an auditorium and alterations to West Junior High and the high school be delayed, due to problems faced by the town through proposed tax cap legislation.

Now comes the problem of what to do with old East Junior High if the town opts to build a new secondary facility within striking distance of the present site.

Selectmen this week insisted that the disposition of old East must be made prior to town meeting, while Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark indicated that he would ask for funds to appoint a study committee to determine the future use of the structure.

An immediate decision on the East Junior High building is not necessary. Or, at least there should be time to properly plan for its disposition, in view of the scope of the project to be presented to town meeting.

First, if the voters buy a new junior high, the old building will be utilized until the new one is completed. This would be at least a year, possibly two.

If the town says renovate the East, then that solves the structure's future.

As matters stand, use of the building as a combined town-school office complex would be out of the question. Both town and school administrators place new administrative offices at the lowest point on the priority list.

Renovation to office use would be an expensive project — probably $2-$3 million, which the town could not afford and probably would not be allowed to plan for under the tax cap proposals now being considered at the state house.

Too, the issue of what to do with the old building would undoubtedly become wrapped up in emotional pleas for its retention.

Those with a sense of Andover's historical past would battle to prevent the wrecker's ball from striking the facade of old Punchard, the original name of the school, designated for the founder of secondary education here.

Also, there is the consideration in some quarters about the loss of the auditorium, designated Memorial Auditorium in honor of those who served in World War I.

Lost in such consideration would be the real issue, the future of Andover's public education system and how best to meet the needs in this modern age.

While cost of the new junior high probably should include the cost of whatever is to be done to the old building, the real issue at the moment is the decision on whether to build or renovate.

There is time to examine the alternatives available for the old structure, even to the point of possibly selling it, and suggest that the town manager's advisory committee is the place for that consideration.

The least expensive disposition as of today, is to tear it down.

But, time may prove that to be a regrettable choice.

Therefore, time to examine and study the alternatives seems the wiser route.

There are other thoughts among the general public concerning not only use of old East Junior High, but about the overall school project to be faced in both April and October town meetings this year.

We suggest that those thoughts, which would be advantageous in the planning process, be shared by using the Public Forum in the TOWNSMAN. We welcome signed contributions.

A Good Neighbor

Phillips Academy more or less sits up on the hill, quietly going about its educational business, but still aware of service to the community.

The offer of use of the cage to conduct town meeting this year is but one part of the many contributions the academy has made to Andover over the years.

About ten years ago, the cage was utilized for an overflow summer town meeting acting on the rezoning for the new Raytheon plant in West Andover.

At the time there was no other facility in town which would accommodate the over 2000 people interested in attending.

Reason for relocating town meeting is the condition of the ceiling in East Junior High school auditorium, a portion of which fell a few weeks ago. It is not known whether the auditorium will be available in April for town meeting, thus the need for another location.

The high school was considered, but would be a costly move since public address systems must be rented, along with chairs and general disruption of the school activities for about a week.

Thus, the use of the cage seems a logical alternative through availability of having all facilities needed.

Earlier, the academy offered its Kemper Auditorium to the East Junior High students preparing a drama presentation for this weekend. Rehearsals were moved from East Junior high and the presentation will be on stage at Kemper tonight and tomorrow.

A week ago, when the decision to utilize the Abbot Academy campus was made by the trustees of Phillips, rather than dispose of the property as proposed last fall, Business Manager George Neilson noted that among the considerations was Phillips' desire to be good neighbors in the community.

The decision, along with their most recent gestures, emphasizes that intent.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — February, 1904

The whist party which was to have been given under the auspices of the November club on next Monday evening, has been given up.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barton of North Main St. will leave Boston tomorrow on the steamer Farragut on a pleasure trip to the Island of Jamaica, where they will remain until the early part of April.

At a meeting of the sons and daughters of New England which was held at South Haven, Michigan, on Jan. 28, George H. Atwood, formerly of this town, was elected president. This club is formed of former residents of New England, and is a flourishing society.

The junior prom given by the Junior class of Phillips Andover Academy will be held in the Borden gymnasium this evening. The grand march, led by E. L. Fowls, '05, will take place at eight o'clock sharp.

There will be 20 regular dances and four extras. At intermission a collation by a Lowell caterer will be served in the gym. Spectator tickets for the gallery are $1.

On next Thursday evening the Andover Social Club will hold an entertainment and smoke talk in their rooms in the Musgrove Building.

The Citizens Caucus will be held in the Town house on Friday evening, Feb. 19, at eight o'clock, to nominate candidates for town offices for the coming year, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

50 Years Ago — February, 1929

Miss Marion L. Smith, the welfare worker, once again wishes to extend thanks for assistance in the relief work of the town. The generosity of individuals and organizations has carried the work to a much higher level than would have been possible if town aid were not supplemented.

No final agreement was reached in the matter of the improvement of North Main St. from Elm Square to Stimpsons's Bridge at the conference between representatives of interested parties held at the statehouse Wednesday afternoon, but considerable progress was made toward one.

The Andover Teacher's Association held its regular weekly social Wednesday afternoon in the library at the Punchard High School. Tea was served. Miss Louise Wright poured and was assisted by Miss Catherine Swett.

A leak in an acetylene gas tank was the reason for summoning the fire department at the Andover garage Tuesday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock. There was an explosion and a fire which fortunately was not serious.

Margaret Laurie is the second local piano pupil of Horace Killam to receive her B Natural Club Pin.

25 Years Ago — February, 1954

New bids for the proposed Ballardvale sewerage system will be called for shortly so that a definite figure for the work may be presented at the town meeting March 8.

The Andover Board of Trade through its board of directors is planning a testimonial dinner to honor Roy E. Hardy, who is retiring from elective town office in March, and has asked more than 50 local organizations to send representatives to a preliminary meeting next week to plan the event.

A public meeting to which all candidates for town office have been invited will be held Thursday, Feb. 18, in the Central

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Of Presidential Hopefuls, Reagan Is a Front-Runner

WASHINGTON -- In 1976, Ronald Reagan came close to displacing an incumbent president before a wildly cheering Republican convention. It was not to be his last hurrah. The darling of the conservatives is now running ahead of the presidential pack.

For a while, Reagan flirted with the idea of forming a third party. He thought a no-compromise, conservative party would serve the national interest. He wanted to give the electorate a cold, clean choice in 1980.

But he decided, instead, to "Reaganize" the Republican Party. He sought to swing it to the right. At the same time, he wanted to reduce the hysteria of past conservative rivals. He hoped he could replace their concern with a more stable affection and trust for himself as the conservative leader.

But Reagan has been haunted by one problem — his age. He will be 69 years old in 1980. He has thought about declaring at the outset that he would be a one-term president. But some advisers fear this might be interpreted as a confession that he hasn't the stamina to last for two terms.

Reagan put on a demonstration of physical fitness a few days ago, making the rounds on Capitol Hill. But some senators told us he had trouble hearing. He would lean toward the person next to him and ask, "What did he say?"

We asked Reagan about this. He said he has had more trouble lately distinguishing sounds from the background noise. But he insisted that he is not hard of hearing.

Other senators reported that his hair looked tinted and his skin free of wrinkles. One source cracked that Reagan was the only man he knew who was "prematurely orange." The inference was that he colors his hair and has had cosmetic surgery.

But Reagan denied both allegations. He even let one critic inspect the roots of his hair and search it for the gray strands that are beginning to appear. He attributes his youthful appearance to the genes he inherited. He also exercises each morning, does heavy work on his ranch and hits the sack for eight hours each night.

Political Prattle: Most politicians speak with a double tongue. Their public statements tend to sound like Fourth of July speeches; but in the backrooms, they speak a raucous, locker-room language.

Many of their most colorful comments cannot be committed to print. But here are a few of their private remarks:

— Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., is always caustic. He is contemptuous of John Connally, the former Democrat who now has Republican presidential ambitions. Privately, Goldwater swears that Connally is cloned from the late President Lyndon Johnson.

— House Speaker Thomas "Tip" O'Neill, D-Mass., pays lip service to President Carter. But in the backrooms, he gives Carter the lip. The trouble with Jimmy Carter, according to O'Neill, is that his electric underwear has shorted out.

— Sen. Ernest Hollings, D-S.C., has been overheard to characterize Carter as "the homogenized president." Other senators have been heard to call Carter a "glorified city manager."

— Sen. Ted Kennedy, D-Mass., has confided to friends that he regards Carter as a "political accident" and a "weak-intentioned" man. But Kennedy has even less use for California's Gov. Jerry Brown. Privately, the senator refers to Brown as "enigmatic" and "erratic."

— We can't say what Brown thinks of Kennedy. But the governor has referred to Carter privately as the first president in space. Unfortunately, says Brown, Carter hasn't solved the re-entry problem.

Pentagon Pipeline: Last year, the Pentagon spent $200,000 vaccinating active-duty military personnel against smallpox, even though less than a fourth of the servicemen went overseas. The brass hats say their troops need the shots in case they suddenly have to go off to war. The truth is, say medical experts, smallpox has virtually been eradicated throughout the world. The last reported case occurred in Somalia, over a year ago. The Pentagon apparently hasn't gotten the word yet.

— Another half a million dollars was wasted last year for the training of would-be West Point cadets who never made it to the military academy.

Almost one-third of the 321 students who attended West Point Prep last year either flunked out, became ill, or chose not to go on to the big school. Beside their full salaries, the students also received more than $4,500 each in tuition and living expenses — courtesy of the taxpayers.

— In a related story, the women military personnel who attend West Point Prep appear to fare even more poorly than the men. Although about two-thirds of the male preppies eventually attend the military academy, nearly half of the women don't make it.

Militant Tourists: Nicaragua's tourist trade screeched to a halt last September when the Central American republic was torn by civil strife. Opponents of dictator Anastasio Somoza complain that the only visitors these days are American mercenaries hired to bolster the national guard.

They may be right. The gift shop at the posh Hotel Intercontinental in Managua is prominently displaying a journal for professional mercenaries called "Soldier of Fortune."

Is your voice getting you the attention you deserve? Never mind what you have to say it's how it is said that matters. Shriill sounds disappear into the air with no results. Have you noticed? The breathless baby approach won't do much except make people wonder why you don't act your age. Sexy and husky may get you in trouble. A voice that is too soft is hard to hear; one that is too nasal translates into whining; one that is too flat is dull and uninteresting. The answer is in the pitch and texture. Keep it low, warm and firm.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

Valentine's Day is a special day at The Haven. At two o'clock there will be a special party to celebrate this symbol of love and friendship, and you are invited! No reservations, no advance calls, just come Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 2 p.m. The Haven singers under the direction of Helen Robinson will provide some of the entertainment.

And speaking of the Haven Singers, they have a busy schedule this month. They sang at the February birthday party at the Haven Feb. 7, they will sing at the Valentine's Day Party this week, and on Feb. 21st they will perform at Christ Church. On Feb. 28, they will sing at the Academy Manor Nursing Home. Helen Robinson says they are always looking for new singers and assures you of a warm welcome if you'd care to join them.

The regular monthly meeting of The Haven Associates — that's everyone in Andover over the age of 60 — will be held

Warrior's Week Not Easy

By Jess Parks

It wasn't the easiest week the Warriors have had, but the results were the same as the unbeaten Andover Basketball team chalked up two more victories — 72-40 over Autin Prep, and 29-16 over Methuen — to boot its record to 16-1.

The victory over Austin Prep was highlighted by a potent Warrior offense which shot its way into the 70-point bracket for only the third time this year.

Todd Orlando led the team with 10 first half points and a Jim Arnold slam dunk with one second left in the half climaxed 16 minutes of Andover offense which gave the Warriors a 20 point lead, 38-18 at half-time.

Austin was not able to recover in the second half as Arnold's inside power and Mark Maher's outside touch combined for 13 third quarter points to carry Andover to a 57-27 lead after three periods. Despite the valiant fourth quarter effort of the Cougar's Brian Hebert (9 points), the Andover reserves, featuring guards Larry Larrabee and Melvin Berger (6 points each) increased the lead to the final margin of 32 points, 72-40.

Austin's Hebert led all scorers with 20 points, showing why he is their top scorer. For the Warriors, Todd Orlando was top scorer with 17, while Jim Arnold added 15 points. Mark Maher tossed in 14 points in three quarters of play to lead the Warrior backcourt attack.

Last Friday night, Methuen came to Andover for the third and final of these two teams' season matchups. The game proved to be the closest and most difficult of the three, as the 29-16 score might suggest.

After losing to Andover twice, Methuen's Coach Donlon decided to attempt a change in strategy. It worked — for a while. The game opened before an absolutely stuffed gymnasium, with both teams experiencing an inability to score. Methuen's stifling zone defense was blocking all inside passing routes, and the Warrior's outside and medium range shooters could not find the hoop. The Rangers were experiencing the same difficulties, but finally managed to score on Kevin Bradley's layup.

With 4:30 left in the first quarter and Methuen leading 2-0, the Rangers decided to stall. The Warriors played out of their 2-1-2 zone and Methuen stuck to its 4-corners offense. For four and a half minutes Gary Maclain, Mark Wante and Vin Fitune played keep-away while Coach Will Hixon kept the Warriors in a zone.

With seconds left, Methuen missed the "last shot" and the first quarter score read Methuen 2, Andover 0. It was the first time Andover had been shut out for a quarter this year, and only the second time the Warriors had trailed at the end of the first period.

The second quarter featured continued defensive excellence by both teams. Two baskets by Mark Maher led the score at 4-4, and Todd Orlando added two more buckets as the Warriors outscored the Rangers 8-7 for the quarter. Methuen's Gary Maclain kept Methuen on top, however, as his four points helped the Rangers maintain a one-point lead, 9-8.

Mark Maher led the Warriors in the decisive third quarter. His strong outside shooting gave him six of his team's eight third quarter points. Andover's defense, a revised 1-3-1 zone stopped Methuen cold. The Rangers could muster but one point to match Andover's eight and trailed the Warriors 16-9, at the end of three quarters.

Maher added two more baskets and Tom Curtin hit three of four free throws to pace Andover in the final period. Methuen, stymied by the Warrior's impenetrable defense, went foul-happy during the final minutes hoping to get the ball. Although the strategy worked (Andover managed to hit only three of nine free throws in the final period), Methuen could still not budge the Warrior defense and scored but six fourth quarter points, losing 29-16.

Maher was the games top scorer with 14 points, and Gary Maclain accounted for half of his team's offense with eight points. Methuen's Kevin Bradley tallied seven and Todd Orlando gave six points to the Andover cause. Orlando also led the two teams in rebounds with nine, while Jim Arnold grabbed seven.

Andover now faces its toughest two games, playing Lawrence at home Friday night, and battling Chelmsford (12-1 in MUC) at Chelmsford next Tuesday.

AHS Girls Sweep Past Wakefield

The Andover Girls' track team overwhelmed Wakefield High School by a score of 63-28. The Girls took firsts in six out of the nine events and also took the one-lap relay as well as the one-mile relay. The girls who came in first were Marci Spiegel in the 50 (6.4), Doretta Robinson in the 300 (39.6), Jan Stelzer in the 1000 (3:03.6), Sue Bright in the one-mile (5:43.9), Marci Spiegel in the shotput (33-1 3/4), and Jill Kennedy in the high jump (4-8).

Second place finishers were Marcia Stansfield (2-mile), Kim Whitworth (hurdles), Peggy Edwards (50), Patti Donofrio (300), Polly Whitley (600), and Anne Frank (high jump).

In third place for Andover were Jennie Burton (2-mile), Anne Frank (hurdles), Monica Williams (50), Deanna Deloury (shotput), and Kathy Saba (high jump).

The two relay teams also got firsts with Marci Spiegel, Karen Surret, Patti Donofrio, and Doretta Robinson in the one-lap relay with a time of 1:22.0. The one-mile relay won with a time of 4:29.8; team members were Polly Whitley, Jan Stelzer, Jill Kennedy, and Peggy Edwards.

Thursday afternoon the girls go against Haverhill High School at 4 p.m. at the Phillips Academy Cage.

Recycling

New Englanders recycled more than 800 thousand pounds of aluminum — the equivalent of 18 million all-aluminum beverage cans — during 1978, according to figures released by the Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company.

Reynolds paid New Englanders $145 per thousand, at the rate of 17 cents per pound, for their all-aluminum beverage cans, household foil and larger aluminum items.

Local residents can participate in the Reynolds aluminum recycling program when Reynolds sends its mobile unit to the Methuen Mall on Wednesday, Feb. 14, from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Little League Registration

Registration for the 1979 Little League season will take place this Saturday, Feb. 10, at the West Junior High School from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. All children aged 9 thru 13 are invited to participate.

A 13-year old league will be inaugurated this year to supplement the long-standing programs for children 9 thru 12 years of age. Little League Officials will be in attendance at the registration to answer any questions concerning the program.

Registration forms are available at all elementary and junior high schools, the Sport Shop, and Andover Hockey Shop.

Senior league registration will take place in early May.

Massachusetts Electric Announces

TIME OF USE RATES

Available March 1...

New optional Time-of-Use Rates will be available to our customers starting March 1. These new rates are intended to help hold down the cost of electricity by changing the time when it is used. We want you to know about these rates so you can decide if you want to participate.

Why Time-of Use Rates?

The idea is to reduce demand for electricity during periods of peak use (8 am to 9 pm EST on weekdays) by encouraging customers to shift their electrical use to off-peak periods (9 pm to 8 am EST weekdays and throughout weekends).

If people can change their pattern of use in this way, it will benefit everyone. That's because we can make electricity less expensively during off-peak times. But, more importantly, we might be able to put off building costly new generating stations.

How do Time-of-Use Rates work?

While you would pay less than the standard rate for electricity used during off-peak periods, you would pay more during peak periods.

In order to save, most families would need to use more than 70 percent of their electricity at off-peak times. You'd probably have to do things like bathing, dishwashing, clothes washing and drying and, if possible, cooking after 9 pm at night on weekdays or on weekends. This could mean a big change in your lifestyle.

Are Time-of-Use Rates for everyone?

Frankly, no. Some of our customers probably can save under Time-of-Use Rates. But many of our customers probably would not save with these rates. That's because they are unlikely to use a large enough percentage of their electricity during off-peak times to save under the optional rates.

Things to consider

• If your lifestyle is already evening-oriented and you use little electricity during the day—or if you really feel you can change your lifestyle—then Time-of-Use Rates might interest you.

• Time-of-Use Rates are optional, but customers who decide to join the program must remain with it for at least a full year.

• Only you can decide if Time-of-Use Rates are right for you.

Pee Wee A's End Skid, Tie Woburn

Tip-In Attempt

After successive losses to Wilmington and Winthrop which extended the Pee Wee A's winless streak to five games, the Andover skaters pulled out a hard fought 2-2 tie against Woburn. Although the locals dropped the first two contests, the boys showed continued improvement in the last week which they carried into the Woburn game. This was very pleasing to the coaching staff as the team has been marred in their worst scoring drought of the year.

Wilmington 9, Andover 3

Andover took on Wilmington's best Pee Wee A team in a non-league encounter at Phillips Academy on Sunday evening. The Andover boys stayed with the visitors for almost two periods until Wilmington's experience paid dividends as the game broke wide open. Andover's goals came from Zack Apgar who scored numbers 32 and 33 of the year, and Ken Crawford who picked up his fourth tally of the season.

Winthrop 3, Andover 0

On Monday night, the A's journeyed to Danvers for a game against Winthrop, who is in second place just one game ahead of Andover in this division. For only the second time this year, the Pee Wee's were shutout at Danvers by a 3-0 score. Winthrop scored one goal in each period to secure the victory. Andover's best opportunities came in the third period. Ken Crawford had a goal called back as the referee said his stick was above his shoulders when the puck was deflected into the net. Other close calls were registered by Shane Smith when he closely missed tucking the puck in the far corner after digging it loose from a scramble behind the net. Shortly after, Fran Ferrara had two drives from this point position which were barely kicked aside.

Turning in hustling efforts in a losing cause were Tom Marjerison, Bill Donovan, Shane Smith, Shaun Bateson and Jon Crawford. Winthrop outshot Andover by a margin of 15 to 8.

Andover 2, Woburn 2

On Wednesday evening, Andover returned to action in Wilmington after a three-week layoff due to storms and scheduling. Woburn, who only one week earlier defeated Andover, was again the opposition. Mike Gibson started in goal for the Pee Wee's and was called upon to make several key saves during the early stages. The balance of the period provided solid two-way hockey as both teams skated and checked very efficiently. When it appeared the game would remain scoreless through the period, Bill Donovan stole the puck deep in the enemy zone and blasted home a shot from the right face off circle at 0:34.

As the second period opened, Woburn caught the locals by surprise and scored at 11:02 to knot the game at 1-1. Just over two minutes later, Jon Crawford went to the penalty box to serve a one minute roughing penalty. The penalty killing unit of LoPresti, Enos, Ferrara and Ken Crawford successfully killed the penalty and didn't allow any shots on net.

Woburn scored the go-ahead goal at 2:58 of the period on a very unusual play. Mike DelTrecco broke up a rush at center ice and Apgar picked up the loose puck, rushed in along and hit the right post. The puck landed on the goal line where a Woburn defenseman slapped it out to relieve the pressure. At that point, another player picked up the puck just outside his zone and rushed unmolested to score the go-ahead goal. The period ended with Woburn in the lead at 2-1.

Only one minute into the final period, Woburn picked up their third penalty of the game giving Andover a man advantage. The power play unit of Daly, Donovan, Crawford, DelTrecco and Bateson kept the pressure deep in the Woburn zone. At 10:21, Apgar intercepted a clearing pass 10 feet inside the blue line and drove a low, hard, slap shot between the goalies pads to tie the game at 2-2. Late in the period, Jon Crawford took a

Andover 4, Pentucket 3

Andover scored first as Tom Maginnis finished off a nice pass from Robbie Calder. Chris Williams was beaten at the 10 minute mark of the first period but played shutout hockey for the rest of his turn in the net. Chris O'Reilly scored from Bill Depper to give the B's the lead, 2-1, after two periods. It appeared that the game was won when Paul Hunt scored, unassisted with a quick back-hand shot and the combination of O'Reilly and Depper gave Andover a 4-1 lead. Barry Moore played a strong game in the nets until two minutes remained. He was beaten on a hard, well-screened shot from the blue-line. Pentucket pulled its goalie and controlled the puck in the Andover end with less than one minute remaining. Again a defensive lapse allowed an easy goal. A last second save by Moore and the resulting clearing pass saved the game for the B's.

Andover 6, Reading II 5

The B's won another cliff-hanger as the line of Calder, Walsh and Maginnis produced 13 points. Chris O'Reilly, assisted by Bill Depper, had his second consecutive 2 goal game. Brian Barry started in goal and left mid-way in the second period leaving his team with a 4-3 lead. For the remainder of the game Chris Williams allowed 2 goals as he made several outstanding saves. Mark Walsh scored the "hat trick", his third goal being the game winner. Robbie Calder and 1 goal and 4 assists and Tom Maginnis had 4 assists. This was an encouraging win for the B's who are suffering from injuries to the defensive duo of Tim Bennett (broken thumb) and Dave Tiberii (Sprained wrist) as a result of off-ice injuries. Joe Germano, high-scoring center, will be missed for the remainder of the regular season as a result of a broken leg suffered last week against Pentucket. Good defensive play by Tom Moon and Tom Duncan and the pairing of Frank DePiano and Ed O'Connor contributed to the win.

Squirt 'A's Look Impressive

The Squirts have been playing good hockey the past two weeks, coming away with a solid 3-0-1 record, which is their best four-game combination to date.

Andover 3
Ipswich 2

Andover broke loose from a 2-2 tie in the closing minutes of the third period to get by Ipswich.

David Bartle, teamed up with defenseman Paul Gilmartin, to shut the door on Ipswich with just 2 minutes left in the game. Ipswich had scored first at the 5 minute mark of the first period with Andover's Mosa Kaleel scoring an unassisted goal shortly after to tie the game by the end of the first period. By the end of the second, Ipswich was ahead 2-1 with Andover unable to find the net but still playing a strong period. The third period, however, was all Andover. Defenseman Mosa Kaleel notched his second goal of the game when Shannon McCabe and Cort Pomeroy teamed up to keep the puck in the Ipswich Zone and feed Kaleel a set-up pass at the 12-minute mark. Andover goalies Robbie Carpentier and Greg Najjar both played solid games, keeping the three period catch-up game within easy reach and allowing David Bartle's late third period goal to put Andover on top for good.

Andover 6, Lynnfield 2

Lynnfield scored early in the 1st period as Barry Moore cleared a centering pass from behind the net into his own goal. Barry then settled down to turn aside every shot on goal. Brian Barry took his turn in the nets at the half-way point of the second period with the score 1-0 in favor of Lynnfield. With 4 minutes remaining in the period Dave Tiberii walked in from the point making several great moves to fire on the goalie and the ever ready Chris O'Reilly banged home the rebound to tie the game. At the 56 second mark Frank DePiano on assists from Tom Moon and Brian Curley opened the floodgates. The 3rd period belonged to Andover and especially to DePiano who closed the scoring with two more goals and the "hat trick." In between Frank's goals, Chris O'Reilly scored a short-handed goal unassisted. This was the third consecutive 2 goal effort for O'Reilly. Bill Depper scored from Tom Duncan and Ed O'Connor. Brian Curley made a classic pass from the right side to hand Frank DePiano his second goal. When a muscle pull forced Paul Hunt from the lineup late in the third period, Ed O'Connor moved to wing and had several testing shots turned aside by the Lynnfield goalie. Chris Williams moved from goalie to defenseman for this game and teamed well with O'Connor. Brian Barry made several clutch saves in the third period to preserve the win.

The B's are now tied for first place in the Danvers League with a record of 11 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie.

Next game at Danvers Twin Rinks is on Saturday, Feb. 10 at 9 p.m.

good penalty when he hauled down a breaking wing from behind to prevent him from going in alone on McDowell. The penalty killing unit of Morocco, Morrison, Smith and Marjerison managed to hold off Woburn and kill the penalty. The balance of the period was very even as both sides played well.

While remaining undefeated in their last three games at Wilmington, the locals played superb two-way hockey and got stronger as the game progressed. Playing steady, all-around games were Apgar, Jon Crawford, Bill Donovan and Jim Daly. Shots on net were 16 for Woburn and 14 for Andover.

Notes: Plans are in the works for the Second Annual Andover Cup Pee Wee A Tournament to be held on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of March. Location, times and opponents will be announced shortly.

The Andover Hockey Association recently held its annual raffle which netted bigger and better gifts than ever before. The first prize of a 19" color TV went to Rhonda Draper of Middleton. Second prize, a 12" black and white TV went to Agnes Munroe of Andover. Tom Gibbons of Norwell picked up third prize, a $50 gift certificate from Kaps. Other prize winners included $25 gift certificates from The Sports Shop to G. P. Stanger of Lynn, from Macartney's to Walter McNamara of Andover, and from The Andover Hockey Shop to Lorraine Ballou of Wilmington. Also, Alease Bruce of Andover picked up a $25 Savings Bond from Luby Real Estate and Harold Parshley of Andover won a shawl by Vera.

Crusaders, Crimson Battle To Win

By Rick Harrison

Holy Cross and Harvard continued their two-way dogfight for supremacy of the Andover Youth Basketball League Intermediate Division, as both registered a pair of recent victories to lift their records to 9-0 and 8-1 respectively.

The Crusaders ripped Dartmouth 53-31 and Villanova 46-20, while the Crimson kept pace with victories over North Carolina State (36-17) and Dartmouth (26-22).

Other AYBL Intermediate results saw Villanova belt Boston College, 37-12, while North Carolina State slammed the Eagles, 55-21.

Holy Cross, 53-31

Dean Weaver poured through 26 points to power HC past Dartmouth, and the Crusaders blew it open with a 26-2 burst in the second quarter.

John Lahood added 13 points, Chris Comparato 8, Mike Coelho 4 and Rich Napolitano 2 for the winners.

Kevin Bardsley and Comparato were cited for excellent defense by Cross Coach Bob Sheehen, while Joe Milora and Brian Sheehy keyed the fast break.

Division scoring leader Mark Nardone tossed in 17 and Mark Doherty chipped in 10 for Dartmouth. Joe Flosman and Steve Boush delivered solo baskets.

Mitch Levine and Joe DeQuattro turned in strong efforts for the Big Green.

Harvard, 36-17

Harvard jumped to a quick 9-0 lead and proceeded to outscore N.C. State in every period enroute to this victory.

Pete Fernandes and Doug Lindquist paced the Crimson charge with eight points apiece.

Tim Perry netted 7, Charlie Ziegenbein 6, Bill Weidman 5 and Heidi Hunter 2 points for the well-balanced victors.

Chris Marcella led the Wolfpack with 6 points, John Hopwood scored 5, Mike Donlon 4 and Greg Hopwood had a bucket.

Villanova, 37-12

Jim Stelzner flipped in 19 points, more than the entire Bosaton College team, as Villanova chalked up its third seasonal triumph.

Brian Orlando chipped in 6 points, Tom Lutz and Chris Guay notched 4 apiece, Dylan Callahan 2 and John Terrior 2 points.

For B.C., which fell behind 26-6 at halftime, Dean Orfanedes hooped 6 points, Dean Lockwood 4 and Eddie Melia 2.

Holy Cross, 46-20

Villanova, playing tough ball of late, gave Holy Cross a run for its money in the first half.

However, a 12-2 burst in the third quarter wrapped up the Crusaders' ninth consecutive triumph.

John Lahood was game-high for HC, leading seven players into the scoring column with 20 points.

Dean Weaver and Brian Sheehy contributed 6 points apiece while Mike Coelho, Rich Napolitano and Chris Comparato had 4 each. Lisa Marcella netted a second quarter bucket to round out the attack.

Weaver also handed out several nice assists, and crisp defense was played by Joe Milora and Lisa Marcella.

Harvard, 26-22

The Crimson received a scare from Dartmouth, as the Big Green led 10-9 at halftime, but a 9-4 Harvard run in the third quarter boosted the divisional runners-up to the victory.

Bill Weidman led Harvard's offense with 7 points, while Doug Lindquist chipped in 6, Charlie Ziegenbein 4, Tim Perry 4, Mark Patti 3 and Pete Fernandes 2.

Mark Nardone kept Dartmouth in contention with a game-high 16 points, and Nicole Marcella pumped in 6.

Mark Doherty and Steve Boush also turned in hustling efforts for Dartmouth.

N.C. State, 55-21

John Hopwood and Chris Marcella combined for 34 points as the Wolfpack belted Boston College for its third seasonal victory.

Hopwood finished as game-high with 20,

St. Robert's Clinches Title

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's clinched an unprecedented fourth straight Andover Church Basketball League Senior Division championship last week, staging a second-half comeback to defeat primary challenger Christ Church, 34-21.

The victory boosted St. Robert's three full games ahead of both C-C and West Parish, with the regular season concluding next week and the playoffs beginning later this month after school vacation week.

In other Senior play last week at East Junior High, West Parish stopped Ballardvale United, 41-33, and St. Augustine A buried St. Augustine B, 48-22.

St. Robert's, 34-21

Mike Leary led the second-half St. Robert's comeback, pouring through 12 points including 10 in the final quarter when the champs really pulled away.

Christ Church, sparked by Mark Rogers, took a 15-10 halftime advantage.

When St. Robert's high-scoring center Tom Budrewicz fouled out early in the third quarter things looked even bleaker for the undefeated titlists (9-0), but the club banded together and played better team ball without Budrewicz.

C-C was weakened by the absence of playmaking guard Dave Menard, and their cause wasn't helped when Rogers left the game on fouls late in the third quarter.

Leary emerged as game-high marksman with 14 points, Tom Palma added 9, John Barry 5, Budrewicz 4 and Barry Miller 2.

Ken Saliba, Yvon Levesque and Barry Lemieux were other standouts for the champs, whose roster also boasts Mike Murphy, Bobby French and Jeff Vecchi.

Divisional scoring leader Rogers netted 9 points for C-C, while Ted McDonald collected 6 and played a fine all-around game before fouling out in the final stanza.

Eric Fredette chipped in 4 points and Randy Jones 2.

West Parish, 41-33

Despite the absence of six players, including its top four scorers, West Parish managed to defeat Ballardvale United on the strength of a 20-4 third quarter explosion.

Trailing 19-15 at halftime, West applied some full-court defensive pressure in the third period to turn things around.

Jim Lowe, hitting consistently from the outside in the second half, powered the West attack with 12 points.

Guard Jay Robbins contributed 9 points, Mike Morris had 8 on fine inside play, Jeff Lindquist 6 and John McLellan 6 points.

J. R. Lindquist also played a solid floor game for WP.

Steve Todd was game-high scorer for United with 14 points, 12 of them in the opening half.

Art Dunlavy tossed in 7 points, Dave Souter 5, Rod Hollenbeck 4 and Gary Forbes 3.

Hard-working Joe Zemis was game-high for St. Augustine B with 15 points, hitting several difficult driving lay-ups, and he also contributed his usual strong defensive effort.

Pete Scanlon added 4 points, Mark Boyle 2 and Mark Connolly had a free throw for the B-crew.

Home Show

The largest and most complete home products and service showcase in the United States — The New England Home Show will move into the Hynes Veterans Auditorium, Prudential Center in Boston for 9 big days and nights. The Show opens on Saturday, March 3 and runs through Sunday, March 11.

150,000 square feet, two solid floors, over 700 booths will fill the entire Hynes auditorium with unique displays of the latest in custom made kitchens, the newest in appliances, alternate energy products, lawn and garden equipment, outdoor furniture, pools and patios, home decor, bathrooms and bathroom accessories, sewing machines, home video systems, carpeting, flooring, plants, power tools, spiral staircases, wood burning stoves, landscaping and hundreds of other home related products.

Snow Tires

If you are using snow tires this winter, Triple-A says store your regular tires flat in a cool, dry place. Make sure they are out of the sun and away from electric motors, which produce rubber-deteriorating ozone. Remember, these same procedures apply when storing your snow tires this spring.

Ford Conducts Clinic

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. basketball program directed by staff members Janet Mead and Paul Swindelhurst has 20 teams among three age groups. The National Y.M.C.A. Youth Basketball Association program is operated in conjunction with the National Basketball Association. Celtics player Chris Ford conducted a clinic at the Haverhill St. building on Jan. 30 for Y.B.A. players and their families from the Greater Lawrence area and Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. programs. The Y.B.A. philosophy stresses: Fair Play, Environment, Family Involvement, Equal Participation by all players. Winning is only one of many goals, having fun is the bottom line.

Volunteers conduct the total program. Grades 7-12 coaches include Bill Geddes, David Harmoning, Ed Hayes, John Mitchell; grades 5 and 6 coaches are Gabe Di Filippo, Joe Skiba, Bob McCormack, Bill Geddes, John Mitchell, Chris Eldredge, John Mele, Gerald Hall, Kevin Brightney; grades 3 and 4 coaches are Walter Moossa, Jim Kennedy, Bill Russell, Paul Kenney, James Tacy, Edmund Brylczky, Ray LeBlanc, Erin Farr, David Pinkney, Neil Twomey, Tom Barnes, Richard O'Brien, Bob Letteri, Kevin Brightney. Games are scheduled each Saturday afternoon with the following referees and scorekeepers officiating.

Mark Dreese Wins Derby

On Jan. 24, Cub Scout Pack 102 from the Bancroft School held their annual Pinewood Derby, with all the excitement of Le Mans, all the thrills of Daytona. Harry Fromme, Mark Kubas, Jeffrey DiDonato, Scott Carlton, Christopher Huston and Robert Conner, all from Den 2, kicked off the evening's events from the East Junior High School with the opening ceremonies.

Jerry Ashworth acted as the official starter, with Tim Hanley and Les Mencis as the finish line judges.

Inter-den races were run first, with one car from each den landing in the intra-den finals. Finalist from Den 1 was Jeremy Schall, Den 2 was Jeff DiDonato, Den 3 was Mark Dreese, Den 4 was Robert Ashworth, Den 5 was Jamey Soule, and from the Webelos was Mark Polakow. Winners from the intra-den finals were as follows: third place went to Robert Ashworth, second place went to Jeremy Schall, and the first place winner was Mark Dreese.

A special award for the most original car went to Todd Orrell from the Webelos, and the special award for the best design went to Scott Carleton from Den. 2.

The first woman to swim the English Channel was 19-year-old Gertrude Ederle in 1926. It took her 14 hours and 31 minutes.

St. Robert's B Averts Upset

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's B, trailing at halftime, exploded in the third quarter to avert an upset and remain undefeated in Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Gold" Division play last week.

The second half rally enabled St. Robert's B to overcome St. Robert's A, 36-23, for its sixth straight victory.

In other Gold Division games, West Parish A remained on the leader's heels with a 40-24 conquest of St. Augustine C, and St. Augustine A won its first game by dousing St. Augustine B, 26-14.

St. Robert's B, 36-23

The undefeated division leaders took a 6-2 first quarter edge, but St. Robert's A switched defenses in the second period and grabbed a 14-11 lead at halftime.

In the third period St. Robert's A was guilty of numerous turnovers, and Dean Weaver parlayed the miscues into 10 points on driving lay-ups as the B-crew regained the upper hand, 26-16.

Weaver finished the contest with 22 points, 16 of them in the second half.

Bob Rikeman added 4 points, Dick Smith 3 and single baskets were contributed by Joe Puccia, Dave DuHadway and Joe Vecchi. Bob Dziadosz swished a second quarter free throw.

Matt Chinchillo, Tim Miller and Chris Chinchillo also turned in hustling efforts for the victors.

Todd Sleath led the upset-minded A-team offense with 6 points, Bobby Veilleux canned 5, Eddie Melia 4, Chris Fay 4, Brian Molloy 2 and Jim Griggs 2.

Kevin Byrne and Mike Melia were other standouts for the A-quintet.

West Parish A, 40-24

Bill Weidman's torrid shooting and Billy Lane's best performance of the season sparked West Parish to its fifth victory in six outings.

Weidman had 20 first half points, hitting an incredible 9-of-9 fieldgoals, as WP took a commanding 24-9 lead and then traded points with St. Augustine C over the last two quarters.

Weidman finished with 26 points, Lane netted 8, Andy Thompson 4 and Chris Guay 2 points for WP.

Chris Marcella also turned in a string effort for the victors.

Jim Stelzner led the answering fire for St. Augustine C with 12 points, while John Geiger contributed strong inside shooting during the fourth period for all 7 of his markers.

Tom Lemieux added a fourth session fieldgoal, Rich Graham converted two free throws, and Keith Driscoll swished a charity.

Joe Hart was a defensive stalwart for St. Augustine C.

Auto Show

The annual New England Auto Show will open at Commonwealth Pier Exhibition Hall Feb. 7 and run through Feb. 11.

Besides the large display of domestic and imported cars, there will be a special section in the show featuring some light duty trucks and vans. Admission to the Show, which has more than doubled in size over last year, is free.

St. Augustine A, 26-14

Pedro Gleason and Tom Lutz paced a pivotal 12-2 second quarter burst, as St. Augustine A raced to a 26-14 conquest of St. Augustine B.

The B-crew hurt itself with poor foul shooting, converting only 2-of-16 from the free throw line.

Gleason emerged as game-high marksman with 12 points, six of them in the second stanza, while Lutz had four of his 6 in that same session.

Mike Surette popped in 4 points; Joe DaDiego 2 and John Regan 2.

Tom Hollenbeck, Tony Holbrook and Matt Aumais also played well for the A-crew.

Tim Riley and Brian McAnally powered the St. Augustine B charge with 5 points apiece, while Rich Sullivan and Pete Zompa added fieldgoals.

Kathy Neaves, Mike Powers and Andy Zompa were other standouts for the B-squad.

St. Augustine's Teams Tied

By Rick Harrison

St. Augustine A and St. Augustine C remained tied atop the Junior Division standings of the Andover Church Basketball League, as both chalked up their fifth straight victories last week.

St. Augustine A slipped past previously-undefeated tri-leader St. Robert's A, 14-10, while St. Augustine C edged Christ Church B, 4-2.

In other action, South slapped Christ Church A, 24-9, St. Augustine D belted St. Robert's B, 22-9, and Ballardvale United blanked St. Augustine B, 14-0.

St. Augustine A, 14-10

Jeff Smith tossed in 6 points, Paul Davies 4, Drew Dunn 2 and Matt Geiger for the co-leaders, who led 8-6 at halftime and 14-10 in the third quarter before a scoreless final session.

Larry Middleton shared game-high laurels with 6 points, while Chris Sapuppo flipped in 4 to guide St. Robert's A.

St. Augustine A played a strong man-toman defense dominating the backboards with a decided height advantage.

Small and scrappy St. Robert's A had numerous scoring chances in the first quarter, but the shots were just missing.

St. Augustine Subsequently made defensive adjustments and bottled up the St. Robert's attack.

St. Augustine C, 4-2

All the scoring came in the fourth quarter of this contest.

Scott Wallace and Lucas Wennik were the marksman for St. Augustine C, while Bart Kalkstein countered with the lone bucket for Christ B.

South, 24-9

Gerry Nassif, scoring in every period, pumped through 14 points to pace South to its convincing decision over Christ A.

C-C actually took a 7-6 first period lead, with Dave Stark notching all the points, but thereafter it was all South.

Barry Connors and Chris DiClemente contributed 4 points apiece for the victors, while Dave Wade added a bucket.

Rjiv Scheel and Robbie Schmidt were the standouts for South.

Stark finished with all nine Christ A markers.

Mark Angelis and Stefan Tomlinson were other stalwarts for Christ A.

St. Augustine D, 22-9

Dave Rourke and Chris Boyle were a two-boy wrecking crew for St. Augustine D, hitting 12 and 10 points respectively, as that club trimmed St. Robert's B 22-9.

The victors were clinging to a 12-9 lead entering the final period, and then erupted for 10 unanswered points to win going away.

Andy McManus, Andy Peck and Sean Finneran also played well for St. Augustine.

Steve Rikeman tossed through 6 points, Mark Berberian 2 and Tom Tormey swished a free throw for St. Robert's B.

Greg Tormey and Joe Massano were defensive standouts for St. Robert's B.

Ballardvale, 14-0

Scott Sarcione netted six first quarter points as BU grabbed an 8-0 lead, and the victors coasted home from there.

Sarcione finished the contest with 8

Shawsheen, St. Mary's Take Lead

The Department of Community Services Elementary School Girls' Basketball League entered its third week of competition this past Saturday. In the day's opening game, the Shawsheen Sharp Shooters took on the Bancroft Bullets and showed their sharp shooting ability by trouncing the Bullets 23-1. High scorers for the Shawsheen team were Amy Taylor and Lisa Marcella who both dropped in 8 points apiece. Other players having outstanding performances were Sue Sellers, Cheryl Curran, and Cheryl Barry for the Sharp Shooters, and Laurie McDonald for the Bancroft Bullets.

The second game featured the Doherty Barons and the Sanborn Stars in a contest that was dominated by the defenses of both teams. The Stars defeated the Barons by a score of 12-6 and lifted their record to 2-1. Top shooters for the Sanborn squad were Robin Colombosian with 6 points and Joanne Martin, Sara Sapuppo, Michele Paisson, with 2 points each. Although the Barons ended up on the short end of the score, the team played a fine game and showed a lot of improvement. Outstanding players for the Doherty Barons were Betsy Murphy, Jenifer Kirkland and Diane Miller.

In the third and final game of the morning undefeated St. Mary's took on the Sanborn Angels and soundly turned back a game Sanborn squad by a score of 21-4. Once again, Ann Hedalgo put on an offensive show for St. Mary's as she dropped in six points for the current league champions.

Certified

The certification arm of the American Institute of Plant Engineers (AIPE) has recently approved the certification of over 300 plant engineering professionals, from a class of around 500 applicants. Included among this final class of 1978, was local engineer George C. Hayes, of 29 First St., North Andover.

AIPE certification was established in 1975 and fast became a standard of excellence for the profession of plant engineering. To date over 1,200 plant engineers in the U.S. and abroad have been certified. Examinations are administered in the Spring and Fall at several locations around the U.S.

Girls' Hoop League Results

The Department of Community Services Elementary Schools Girls' Basketball League entered its second week of competition this past Saturday with all six teams seeing action.

In the first game, the Doherty Barons took on the Shawsheen Sharp Shooters and lost in a tough defensive battle, 14-10. Sue Sellers led all scorers with six points. Other players putting in outstanding performances for Shawsheen were Lisa Marcella, Cheryl Curran and Amy Taylor.

While the Doherty squad suffered its second loss of the season, it once again had a balanced attack that had four players sharing the scoring. These four players were: Barbie Ransage, Krissy Faden, Kate Murphy and Jenifer Ippolito.

In the second game, the Sanborn Stars tangled with the Sanborn Angels and the Stars walked away with a 29-0 victory. High scorers for the victors were Amy Movnihan (8 points), Robin Dolombosian (6 points) and Kay Levesque (5 points). Although the Angels dropped their second straight decision in as many weeks, the team's spirit and hard work is bound to pay off soon.

The morning's final game found the Bancroft Bullets squaring off with St.

Migration

One hundred million birds migrate in the autumn from the east coast of North America to the Caribbean Islands and South America. This is the longest known non-stop flight for small birds: 2-8000 kilometers in about 86 hours, Massachusetts Audubon reports.

Ducks

The duck's name comes from the Middle English word, duke, meaning a diving bird. Goose derives from the Old English word, gos, and swan probably comes from the Latin, sonus, meaning sound, referring to the tumultuous call of some swans, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

Mary's of Lawrence. This game proved to be a defensive contest as the usually powerful St. Mary's team managed just six points against the Bullets. Led by Maricruz Lora, and Ann Hedalgo, St. Mary's shut out the tough Bancroft squad and squeezed out a 6-0 victory.

Peace Corps Boston Fair

On Tuesday, Feb. 13, ACTION, the federal voluntary service agency, will sponsor Boston's First Annual Peace Corps Fair, at the MidTown Hotel, 220 Huntington Ave., across from the Christian Science Center.

The Fair will involve returned peace Corps volunteers from 64 countries and host country nationals, in an evening of exhibits, films, music, and food native to Asia, Africa, and Latin America.

Teams Stay Undefeated

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's C and Christ Church B, who met in a first place showdown earlier this week, kept their Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Blue" Division records perfect last week with victories.

High-scoring St. Robert's C crushed St. Augustine E, 40-12, while Christ B trimmed Ballardvale United, 26-14.

In other Blue Division play, South-Baptist dumped St. Robert's D, 18-10, West Parish B slipped past Christ Church C, 12-6, and St. Augustine D defeated Christ Church A, 29-12.

St. Robert's C, 40-12

Eight different players scored and no one was in double figures for well-balanced St. Robert's C, which sports the division's top offense with a 37-point average per game.

Neal Weaver netted all 8 of his game-high point total in the opening period, as the victors raced to a commanding 16-2 lead and never looked back.

Dave Cox, Jim Veilleux, John Veilleux and Matt Dispensa tossed through 6 points each, Tom Dolan added 4, and single buckets were notched by Dan Bovenzi and Jay R. DuHadway.

John Sheedy led St. Augustine E with 6 points while Bob Derrah, Sean Derrah and Paul Sheedy flipped tahrugh 2 points apiece.

Christ B, 26-14

Christ B had to work a bit harder before chalking up its sixth straight victory, as Ballardvale remained within striking distance most of the way.

C-C led 10-6, 14-8 and 20-10 at the first three quarter breaks.

Steve Blair was the top gun for the winners with 10 points, Matt Leonard added 9, Bill Earnshaw 3, Jean Blair 2 and Eric Anderson 2 points.

Jeff Crowninshield and John McIntyre helped BU stay in contention with 4 markers apiece.

Single baskets were delivered by Jeff Znamierowski, Dana Belpedio and Dave Baker.

South-Baptist, 18-10

South-Baptist, which has been involved in four games decided by two points or less, used an 8-0 second period burst to keep this contest from being another nailbiter.

Wood-burning stoves, compared to fireplaces, produce nearly total combustion of wood's volatile gases and carbon residues, Massachusetts Audubon says. Beech, black birch, hickory, ironwood, black locust, sugar maple and oak are top quality for heating value. Among those with less heating value are: balsam, cedar, hemlock, pines and spruce.

St. Robert's D matched the S-B point total in three of the four periods, but couldn't contend with the second quarter spurt.

Dave Hughes was game-high marksman with 8 points for S-B, including six in the pivotal second chapter.

Scott Lattanzio fired through 4 points and solo fieldgoals went to John Gardner, Craig Sorrie and Tim McDonald.

Greg Mattes, Malcolm Galvin and Bot Mattes turned in fine defensive efforts for the winners.

Mike Autiello scored 4 first quarter points, Chris Smith had 4 second half markers, and Tim Moynihan stuffed a third period bucket for St. Robert's D.

Jeff Smith and Mike Moynihan were other standouts for SR.

West Parish B, 12-6

West Parish B struggled past Christ C in a defensive tussle, as the winners snapped a halftime tie and held C-C to just two points after intermission.

Robbie Barnard netted 6 points, Kelly Strong 4 and John Todd 2 for WP.

Rich Bourdelais and Philip Stocking led the defensive effort.

Beau Jones and Cheryl Hough did all the scoring for C-C with 4 points and a pair of free throws respectively.

Lori Franzese and Marie Ferrangamo added strong defensive performances.

St. Augustine D, 29-12

Chris Bartley poured in 14 points for the victors, who outscored Christ A 20-4 over the middle two quarters to clinch the win.

Scott Grant chipped in 7 markers, Tom Finneran 4, Scott McAllister 2 and Steve McGettrick 2 points.

Tom Brand and Glenn Livermore provided the 1-2 punch for Christ A, tossing through 6 points each.

Mark Asgeirsson, Allen Gable and Roger Fisk also played well for C-C.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
LAND COURT

Middlesex, ss.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Land Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Respectfully represents BENJAMIN T. WILKISH and MARJORIE E. WILKISH of Wilmington, County of Middlesex, said Commonwealth, and JOHN L. CYR of Windham, in the State of New Hampshire, that they are owners of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in Andover, in the County of Essex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Land in the South Parish of Andover situated on the easterly and westerly sides of Woburn Street, being the same premises conveyed to BENJAMIN T. WILKISH et ux deed of MARY LARKIN dated December 31, 1948, recorded with Essex North District Registry of Deeds, Book 719, Page 349.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by BENJAMIN T. WILKISH and MARJORIE E. WILKISH to HELEN E. BENNETT of Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts dated December 31, 1948, and duly recorded Book 719, Page 350, Essex North District Registry of Deeds, purporting to secure a note for $3500, payable in two years with interest annually, which mortgage appear to be undischarged, unassigned and unexpired on and by the record.

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagors named in said mortgage and those claiming under them have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioners pray that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20, of the Acts of 1924.

Benjamin T. Wilkish, Marjorie E. Wilkish, John L. Cyr.

By Richard G. Drury, their attorney

On this twenty-seventh day of November, 1978 personally appeared before me the within named Benjamin T. Wilkish, Marjorie E. Wilkish and John L. Cyr, by their attorney, known to me to be the signers of the foregoing petition, and made oath, that the statements therein contained so far as made of their own knowledge are true and so far as made upon information and belief that they believe them to be true. Before me, MARY J. JOHNSTON, Notary Public
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
LAND COURT

Case No. 93333

Essex, SS.

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said petition to appear before the Land Court, at Lawrence, within and for our said County of Essex (where appearances and answers may be filed with Thomas J. Burke, Register of Deeds for the North Registry District of said Essex County, as Assistant Recorder of said Court) on the first Monday of April next, by causing a true and attested copy of said petition and this order to be published forthwith once a week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, in said County of Essex, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said first Monday of April next; by serving each known respondent by registered mail with a like attested copy of said petition and order as soon as may be and in any event fourteen days at least before said first Monday of April next; that all respondents may then and there show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

By the Court. Attest:

LAND COURT

To the Town of Andover, a municipal corporation, located in the County of Essex, and said Commonwealth; ARTHUR W. SMITH, PHYLLIS D. SMITH, HENRY K. JENKINS, and EVELYN JENKINS, all of said Andover; LOUIS R. SODERBERG and EVELYN C. SODERBERG, both of Fort Meyers Beach, State of Florida; BENJAMIN T. WILKISH and MARJORIE WILKISH, both of Wilmington, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; WILLIAM E. CHAPMAN and JANICE R. CHAPMAN, both of Reading, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by ANNA BATEMAN, of Arlington, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth, to confirm her title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in said Andover, bounded and described as follows:

Southerly, Southwesterly, Southerly and Southeasterly by Rattlesnake Hill Road 1764.12 feet; Southwesterly by land now or formerly of Benjamin T. Wilkish 297 feet; Northwesterly by land now or formerly of Benjamin T. Wilkish and Marjorie E. Wilkish 702.37 feet; Northerly by land now or formerly of Louis R. Soderberg and Evelyn C. Soderberg, Trustees of Soderberg Trust and by land now or formerly of Henry K. Jenkins and Evelyn Jenkins 663.30 feet; Northeasterly by land now or formerly of said Henry K. Jenkins and Evelyn Jenkins and by land now or formerly of Arthur W. Smith and Phyllis D. Smith 886.38 feet.

Petitioner denies the right of anyone to use the trails and seeks to have the same eliminated.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically your objections or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston (at the Court House), or in the office of the Assistant Recorder of said Court at the Registry of Deeds at Lawrence in the County of Essex where a copy of the plan filed with said petition is deposited, on or before the twelfth day of March next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by or for you, your default will be recorded, the said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon. Witness, WILLIAM I. RANDALL, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of January in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.

Attest with Seal of said Court.

WATCH THOSE STATISTICS

You see the headlines in the newspaper quite often . . . "Home prices up 6%" "Home prices up 10%." The situation looks discouraging for potential home buyers. But before you shake your head and say you can't afford those prices, dig a little deeper and see what's behind those statistics.

The prices that are quoted in the papers are usually MEDIAN prices. The median price is the middle price . . . Remember this when you read the real estate news. If the headline says "Median Price of Homes in West Northville Reaches $52,500" it simply means that half the homes sold went for more than that figure, and half went for less. Bear in mind that the median price figure only gives a rough idea of home prices. The only real way to know what's available and at what price is to find out. Remember that statistics view the whole picture, surveying a group of homes and arriving at a median figure. YOU are only interested in one home! There might be one out there just for you at the price you want to pay. Come in and talk to us about it. You might be able to laugh at those statistics as you move into your own home!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pynchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Are you overlooking an extraordinary way of life?

These people are.

They're residents of Millpond. An extraordinary community of contemporary townhomes in historic North Andover.

At Millpond, a firm regard for the traditions of the past exists side by side with a healthy respect for the joys of modern living.

Take the townhomes themselves. Like the land they occupy, they are bold, rugged, and natural on the outside. Gracious, expansive, and fully convenient on the inside.

There are tennis courts here. A swimming pool. A private beach and boat dock on historic Stevens Pond.

There are nature trails. And ski trails. And riding paths. All on 22 of the most beautiful acres of New England countryside you've ever seen.

The Millpond lifestyle begins at $90,000. Why not come out sometime, and take a careful look at this carefully planned community.

To get here, take Rt. 495 to the Mass. Avenue exit (North Andover). Turn left on 125, and one-half mile later, turn right on Pleasant St. Millpond is one-quarter mile down, on Stevens Pond. From Rt. 128, take 95 North to Exit 15 (Rt. 125 to North Andover). At 114/125, turn left. Bear right at first traffic light, staying on 125. Turn right on Pleasant St., about 1 1/2 miles down. Millpond is a quarter of a mile away.

CLASS To Hold Sale

Remnant pieces of fine wools and wool blends from an exclusive sportswear manufacturer will be offered for sale at bargain prices (80% off) by C.L.A.S.S. (Citizen League for Adult Special Services) at the West Andover Community Center on River Road (opposite the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School) on Friday, Feb. 9 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday, Feb. 10 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Among the fabrics are lightweight English wools, Harris tweeds, all wool worsted flannel and 100% pure Shetland tweeds perfect for coats, suits, blazers, skirts and slacks.

C.L.A.S.S. is a volunteer non-profit association dedicated to the provision of a full range of services for the mentally retarded adults of the greater Lawrence area. Within the past two years C.L.A.S.S. has opened pre-vocational and community and living skills programs and developed plans for a building for the continued education and training for all greater Lawrence retarded adults.

Down The Years

The Andover Taxpayers Association has been making further studies concerning the merger of the tree department with the department of public works, and, in a statement issued today, state they have come to the conclusion that better economy, efficiency and more complete tree care will result from this move.

10 Years Ago — February, 1969

One article in the annual town meeting warrant sure to run into difficulty, is the item calling for the appropriation of $375,000 to obtain the Andover playhouse property and the Daly Block on Main St. next to the library.

Norman Marble, supervising natural resource officer of the Division of Law Enforcement, Department of Natural Resources, announced today that a course for minors, ages four through seven, in the safe handling of firearms will be held at East Junior High School on Feb. 11.

The Andover Buddy Werner Ski Team won their second area meet in the Eastern Massachusetts Ski League competition at the Boston Hill Ski Area yesterday with North Andover second and Lawrence-Methuen third.

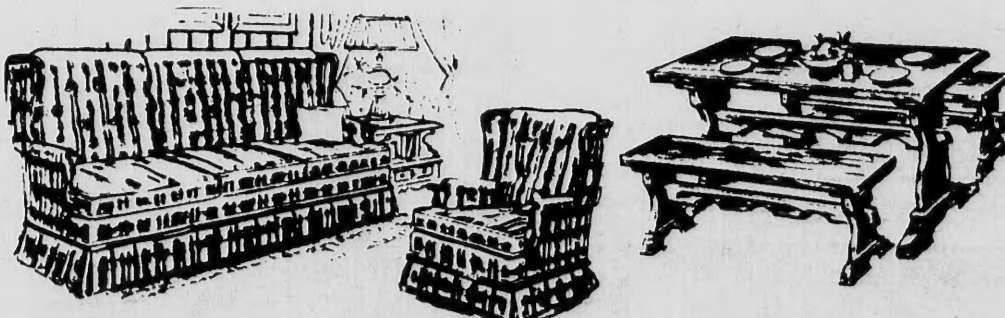

The school and finance committees played to a crowded house of visitors Tuesday night, and pared $44,222 from the budget, and parted close to sweet agreement. The only cuts which Fincom head Dr. Albert Greenburg called "fat" were the $15,000 cut from the $33,000 scholars supplies item and the $9,223 cut from the $44,223 Student Body Activities budget.
